Overview

Each school's Progress Report (1) measures the student year-to-year progress, (2) compares the school to peer schools, and (3) rewards success in moving all children forward, especially children with the greatest needs.

CATEGORY	SCORE		GRADE	DESCRIPTION
Student Progress	48.6 out of 55		A	Student Progress measures the annual progress students make toward meeting the state's graduation requirements by earning course credits and passing State Regents exams.
Student Performance	15.6 out of 20		A	Student Performance measures how many students graduated within 4 and 6 years of starting high school, and the types of diplomas they earned.
School Environment	12.2 out of 15		A	School Environment measures student attendance and a survey of the school community rating academic expectations, safety and respect, communication, and engagement.
College and Career Readiness	8.0 out of 10		A	College and Career Readiness measures how well students are prepared for life after high school on the basis of passing advanced courses, meeting English and math standards, and enrolling in a post-secondary institution.
Closing the Achievement Gap	9.2 out of 16			Schools receive additional credit for exceptional graduation and college/career readiness outcomes of students with disabilities, English Language Learners, and students who enter high school at a low performance level.
Overall Score	93.6 out of 100		A	The overall grade is based on the total of all scores above. Category scores may not add up to total score because of rounding.

*During the 2012-13 school year, New York City public schools were affected by Hurricane Sandy. Adjustments have been made to attendance rates for all schools.

Progress Report Implications

Strong Progress Report results are the basis for recognition and potential rewards for school leaders, and poor results are an important factor in determining whether schools require intensive support or intervention. For more information, see:

PROGRESS REPORT

A

OVERALL SCORE
93.6
out of 100

OVERALL PERCENTILE RANK
99

This school's overall score is greater than or equal to that of 99.6 percent of all schools.

For high schools, grades are based on our scores determined prior to the release of the Progress Report. Further, schools with a four-year graduation rate in the top third citywide cannot receive a grade lower than a C. Schools in their first year, without a graduating class or in phase but receive a report with no grade or score.

Progress Report Grades - High School

A Big Apple for Educators: New York City's Experiment with Schoolwide Performance Bonuses Julie A.

Marsh,Matthew G. Springer,Daniel F. McCaffrey,Kun Yuan,Scott Epstein,2011-07-15 For three school years from 2007 to 2010 about 200 high needs New York City public schools participated in the Schoolwide Performance Bonus Program whose broad objective was to improve student performance through school based financial incentives An independent analysis of test scores surveys and interviews found that the program did not improve student achievement perhaps because it did not motivate change in educator behavior Strife and Progress Paul T. Hill,2013 Deficient urban schooling remains one of America s most pressing and stubborn public policy problems This important new book details and evaluates a radical and promising new approach to K 12 education reform Strife and Progress explains for a broad audience the portfolio strategy for providing urban education its rationale implementation and results Under the portfolio strategy cities use anything that works indifferent to whether schools are run by the public district or private entities It combines traditional modes of schooling with newer methods including chartering and experimentation with schools making innovative use of people and technology Urban districts try to make themselves magnets for new talent recruiting educators and career switchers looking to make a difference for poor children The portfolio strategy creates interesting new bedfellows people who think that government should oversee public education align with those advocating choice competition and entrepreneurship It cuts across political lines and engages city governments and civic assets e g philanthropies businesses universities much more deeply than earlier reform initiatives New York and New Orleans were portfolio pioneers but the idea has spread rapidly to cities as far flung as Los Angeles Denver and Chicago Results have been mixed overall but generally positive in places that implemented the strategy most aggressively Reform leaders such as New York s Joel Klein have been overly optimistic however assuming that the strategy s merits would be so obvious that careful assessment would be unnecessary Serious policy evaluation is still needed New York City's School-Wide Bonus Pay Program Matthew G. Springer,2011

Strategic Inquiry Nell Scharff Panero,Joan E Talbert,2013-09-01 Strategic Inquiry is an innovative model for promoting teacher collaboration around identifying specific learning gaps that keep struggling students from succeeding Gaps may include anything from the proper use of commas and conjunctions to concepts such as slope in math The authors argue that addressing these critical learning gaps can lead to big changes in student success in teachers sense of efficacy and in school culture The strategic inquiry model has been implemented in schools and districts around the country including New York City where it was rigorously evaluated with impressive results As Common Core standards raise the bar for student learning ever higher this proven approach promises to build teachers capacity for closing the gap between where struggling students are and where they need to be Report of Progress Geological Survey of Pennsylvania,1878 35 vols are atlases

Transforming Public Education Stacey Childress,2010 Transforming Public Education features nineteen cases that profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools For nearly two decades education entrepreneurs have been working to transform the K 12 public education system in the United States Social entrepreneurship has become part of the language of a new generation of idealists many of whom are focused on education The nineteen cases in this book profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools in particular by creating high quality educational opportunities for low income and minority students who are dramatically underserved by the current public education system Based on a popular course developed and taught at the Harvard Business School this casebook is organized into four modules Understanding the Context of Urban Schooling in the United States Tackling the People Problem Focusing on Performance Launching and Growing New Schools Students are invited to explore four overarching questions Why are there opportunities for entrepreneurs in a sector that is funded with public dollars and delivered by public agencies Why is entrepreneurial activity aggregating around certain opportunities What are the possibilities and constraints faced by entrepreneurs in each opportunity area How can we evaluate the impact of these entrepreneurs efforts

Big-City School Reforms Michael Fullan, Alan Boyle, 2014

Big cities have struggled to improve public school systems This book shows why and offers a framework for achieving future success Fullan and Boyle internationally renowned thinkers on school change demonstrate that while the educational challenges of big cities may be overwhelming they are not insurmountable They draw on ten years of research to identify six essential push and pull actions that enable big school systems to improve student achievement Leaders must push to challenge the status quo convey a high sense of urgency and have the courage needed to intervene But they need to also pull together to create a commonly owned strategy develop professional power and attend to sustainability Examining three major cities New York Toronto and London through the decade of 2002 2012 this book weaves case studies with careful analysis and recommendations to hone in on which policies and strategies work best to raise the bar for all students and reduce the gap for the disadvantaged Big City School Reforms offers invaluable advice to those leading the next phase of school reform in cities around the world This is an eminently practical book that focuses on big problems and big solutions This encouraging book draws on the recent experiences of New York London and Toronto to identify what it takes to transform big city school systems It recognises their complexities without being overawed by them By concentrating on the factors that seem to matter most it offers real hope that we can now tackle some of the key issues that have frustrated reform efforts in the past Geoff Whitty director emeritus Institute of Education University of London UK Fullan and Boyle present a compelling framework for motivating and sustaining improvement in large urban school districts The authors premise that system leaders must optimally balance push and pull strategies serves as an important lesson to school level leaders as well Sandra J Stein education and leadership consultant In this important new book Fullan and Boyle answer the most important question facing the leaders of the world's major cities what will it take to significantly improve the quality of public education Through a sophisticated analysis of the policies pursued in New York Toronto and London the authors make it possible for us to see why some cities are making more progress than others Their clear and compelling insights couldn't be more relevant and timely Pedro A Noguera Peter L Agnew Professor of Education Steinhardt School of Culture Education and Development Executive Director Metropolitan Center for Urban Education New York University Michael Fullan Order of Canada is professor emeritus of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto Alan Boyle is director of Leann Education Associates where he designs professional learning for education leaders Research in Education, 1969
