

Peoria Police Department Policy and Procedure Manual

Policy 8.08

National and State Computer Systems/Regional Law Enforcement Services

I. POLICY

It is the policy of the Peoria Police Department that all employees abide by the rules and regulations governing the use of regional law enforcement services among agencies through cooperative agreements regarding the use of the statewide centralized system for criminal information and fingerprints records.

II. PROCEDURE

- A. Statewide Centralized Fingerprint Records system (CHRS): It is the policy of the Peoria Police Department to establish and maintain an accurate criminal history file for all individuals processed as an arrest through our Agency and to ensure that a record of these arrests are made available to the Arizona Department of Public Safety (AZ DPS) CHRS for statewide criminal history indexing purposes.
 1. All booking/arrest documents are forwarded to the Records Management Section for processing.
 - a. Upon receipt, Records Management personnel will be responsible for the completion and processing of all arrest fingerprint cards submitted to the section.
 - b. Completed fingerprint cards are forwarded to the CHRS based on acceptance criteria.
 2. It is the responsibility of the booking police officer to obtain fingerprint impression cards (Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) FORM FD-249), either by Integrated Live Scan (ILS) or manually if ILS is not working, on all prisoners being booked into a jail facility.
 3. Two (2) sets of fingerprint impressions must be obtained for all misdemeanor bookings, and three (3) sets must be obtained for all felony bookings. The fingerprint impressions, along with the yellow disposition report AZ DPS Form 802-03757) shall be brought back to the Peoria Police Department and submitted to the Records Management Section.
 4. ILS fills in the required information on the fingerprint impression cards.
 - a. If ILS is not working, all information blocks on the fingerprint impression cards shall be left blank, with the exception of:
 - (1) The suspect's printed name,
 - (2) Signature of the person fingerprinted and
 - (3) The signature of the official taking the fingerprints.
 - b. The Records Management Section will be responsible for the completion of the remaining information based upon information shown on the booking/arrest report.
- B. Statewide Centralized Criminal Information System
 1. Policy – It is the policy of the Peoria Police Department to abide by the rules, regulations and guidelines of the Arizona Criminal Justice Information System (ACJIS) and the Arizona and National Crime Information Centers (ACIC/NCIC).
 - a. Participation in these systems is conditional upon adherence to policy as set forth in the NCIC Operating Manual and applied through the following procedures.
 - b. The Peoria Police Department is subject to audits by the AZ DPS and/or the FBI for compliance. (82.1.9)

While confidential informants CI s can play a crucial role in police investigations they also have the potential to cause great harm if they are dishonest The process by which police agencies qualify a CI to work and the strength of agency policy may be the source of the problem This Brief examines the integrity problem involving CIs in police operations within the United States provides an overview of pitfalls and problems related to veracity and informant integrity including the difficulties in detecting when a CI is lying and compares the provisions of actual published police policy to the model CI policy published by the International Association of Chiefs of Police IACP The analysis shows a wide divergence between actual police policy and the national standard promulgated by the IACP The Brief provides policy recommendations for improving use of CIs that can potentially reduce or eliminate integrity problems that can lead to organizational accidents such as wrongful arrests and convictions injuries or deaths Some Courts have issued measures to ensure that information received from CIs is reliable by examining sworn testimony and documents related to their work However as this Brief explores this judicial effort arises only after a police operation has taken place and the use of force even deadly force has already been employed The author proposes integrity testing beforehand which would allow police to have a greater understanding of a CI s motivation ability and veracity when conducting law enforcement operations In addition there are aspects of police policy that can enhance CI management such as training supervision and entrapment that can further guard against integrity problems Although integrity testing is not flawless it does interpose an additional step in the CI management process that can help guard against wrongful conviction and perjury that harms the judicial process New Zealand Handbook of Civil Liberties Tim McBride,1973 Handbook of LGBT Communities, Crime, and Justice Dana Peterson,Vanessa R. Contemporary scholars have begun to explore non normative sexual orientation gender identity and gender expression in a growing victimization literature but very little research is focused on LGBTQ communities patterns of offending beyond sex work and their experiences with police the courts and correctional institutions This Handbook the first of its kind in Criminology and Criminal Justice will break new ground by presenting a thorough treatment of all of these under explored issues in one interdisciplinary volume that features current empirical work The History of Policing in New Zealand: Policing the colonial frontier Richard S. Hill,1986 Forensic Fraud Brent E. Turvey,2013-03-18 Forensic Fraud is the culmination of 12 years of research by author Brent E Turvey A practicing forensic scientist since 1996 Turvey has rendered this first of its kind study into the widespread problem of forensic fraud in the United States It defines the nature and scope of the problem the cultural attitudes and beliefs of those involved and establishes clear systemic contributors Backed up by scrupulous research and hard data community reforms are proposed and discussed in light of the recently published National Academy of Sciences report on forensic science An adaptation of Dr Turvey s doctoral dissertation this volume relentlessly cites chapter and verse in support of its conclusions that law enforcement cultural and scientific values are incompatible and that the problem of forensic fraud is systemic in nature It begins with an overview of forensic fraud as a sub type of occupational fraud it explores the extent of fraud in both law enforcement and scientific employment settings it establishes and then contrasts the core values of law enforcement and scientific cultures and then it provides a comprehensive review of the scientific literature regarding forensic fraud The final chapters present data from Dr Turvey s original research into more than 100 fraudulent examiners between 2000 and 2010 consideration of significant findings and a review of proposed reforms to the forensic science community based on what was learned It closes with a chapter on the numerous crime lab scandals and closures that occurred between 2010 and 2012 an update on the deteriorating state of the forensic science community in the United States subsequent to data collection efforts in the present research Forensic Fraud is intended for use as a professional reference manual by those working in the criminal system who encounter the phenomenon and want to understand its context and origins It is intended to help forensic scientist and their supervisors to recognize manage and expel it to provide policy makers with the necessary understaffing for acknowledging and mitigating it and to provide agents of the courts with the knowledge and confidence to adjudicate it It is also useful for those at the university level seeking a strong secondary text for courses on forensic science law and evidence or miscarriages of justice First of its kind overview of the cultural instigators of forensic fraud First of its kind research into the nature and impact of forensic fraud with data 2000 2010 First of its kind typology of forensic fraud for use in future case examination in research Numerous profiles of forensic fraudsters Review of major crime lab scandals between 2010 and 2012 Applied and Clinical Sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand Zarine L. Rocha, Kathy L. Davidson, 2023-12-19 This is the first volume to explore clinical and applied sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand while also providing unique insights into the practice of sociology internationally Drawing out the intersections between sociological research public sociology and applied sociology the chapters in this volume enrich the rapidly growing field of international clinical sociology Aotearoa New Zealand presents an important case study in the development and practice of sociology with a vibrant social scientific community and a significant diversity of scholars and practitioners local research and practice highlight the country s innovative and often unusual approaches to addressing social problems This volume brings together a diversity of scholars and practitioners from the country s top sociologists to early career researchers and provides a comprehensive and valuable exploration of sociology and its many practical applications in this unique context It covers a wide range of key topics in the field from the challenges of practicing a public sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand to the role of applied and clinical sociologists in government and consultancies Contemporary social issues are explored as case studies including practising sociological psychotherapy indigenous applications of sociology and M ori language learning and applying sociology within healthcare This is a key addition to applied and clinical sociology literature The Word of a Woman? J. Jordan, 2004-08-18 The notion that women lie about rape is a prevalent belief with pervasive influence This book is unique in combining police file data with interviews obtained from both rape survivors and detectives in order to critically explore how this belief affects police officers responses to women who report rape Examination of this material is located within a broader analysis of the historical and socio cultural environment and illustrates how rape investigations continue to be conducted within the context of pervasive beliefs and stereotypes regarding both the nature of rape and the nature of women The Handbook of Crime & Punishment Michael H. Tonry, 2000 Consisting of 28 articles this comprehensive reference work on the study of crime examines its causes effects trends and institutions current philosophies of punishment and ways of controlling crime Handbook to Australasia William Fairfax, 1859
