Oag Performance Audit Manual:

Environmental Performance Auditing in the Public Sector Awadhesh Prasad, 2018-06-14 Environment and sustainable development challenges are a matter of global concern Trillions of dollars of mostly public money are invested every year in domestic and international policies and programs to address these challenges The effectiveness of these policies and programs is critical to environmental sustainability Performance audits that examine the effectiveness of governmental policies and programs heavily influence their implementation Despite this performance auditing in the environment field has received very little academic attention This book takes a closer look at performance auditing of public sector environmental policies and programs It examines trends in global environmental performance auditing and how it is currently practiced drawing on a global survey and case studies from Canada India and Australia In doing so it identifies issues and challenges faced by Supreme Audit Institutions in undertaking these performance audits This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of sustainable development environmental auditing and public sector auditing as well as to donor organisations engaged in these areas

Overpromising and Underperforming? Peter Graefe, Julie Simmons, Linda A. White, 2013-01-08 Public reporting has been used experimentally in federal provincial relations since the mid 1990s as an accountability mechanism to promote policy effectiveness intergovernmental cooperation and democratic legitimacy Our understanding of how well it is working however remains limited to very specific policy sectors even though this information is essential to policy makers in Canada and beyond Overpromising and Underperforming offers a deeper analysis of the use of new accountability mechanisms paying particular attention to areas in which federal spending power is used This is the first volume to specifically analyse the accountability features of Canadian intergovernmental agreements and to do so systematically across policy sectors Drawing on the experiences of other federal systems and multilevel governance structures the contributors investigate how public reporting has been used in various policy fields and the impact it has had on policy making and intergovernmental relations International Journal of Government Auditing, 2010

Evaluation Jan-Eric Furubo, 2018-02-06 Evaluation has come of age Today most social and political observers would have difficulty imagining a society where evaluation is not a fixture of daily life from individual programs to local authorities to parliamentary committees While university researchers grant makers and public servants may think there are too many types of evaluation rankings and reviews evaluation is nonetheless viewed positively by the public It is perceived as a tool for improvement and evaluators are seen as dedicated to using their knowledge for the benefit of society The book examines the degree to which evaluators seek power for their own interests This perspective is based on a simple assumption If you are in possession of an asset that can give you power why not use it for your own interests Can we really trust evaluation to be a force for the good To what degree can we talk about self interest in evaluation and is this self interest something that contradicts other interests such as the benefit of society Such questions and others are addressed in this brilliant innovative international collection of pioneering contributions Financial Accountability in Nepal World Bank, 2003 Nepal has suffered from the lack of proper management of public expenditures stagnant real revenues large and inefficient parastatals and a weak financial sector Fiduciary risk remains high His Majesty's Government of Nepal has accorded high priority to the assurance of good accountability and transparency in public sector financial management This diagnostic study assesses the strengths and weaknesses of the budgeting accounting financial reporting and auditing systems and the standards and practices in the public private and non government organization sectors of the economy Such financial accountability is important for efforts to improve the investment climate monitor public expenditure improve governance and promote decentralization Speaking Out on Human Rights Pearl Eliadis, 2014-04-01 Canadians like to see themselves as champions of human rights in the international community Closer to home however the human rights system in Canada particularly its public institutions such as commissions and tribunals has been the object of sustained debate and vehement criticism based largely on widespread myths about how it works In Speaking Out on Human Rights Pearl Eliadis explodes these myths analysing the pervasive distortions and errors on which they depend Canada's human rights system a unique legal tradition operating within a powerful modern constitution is a fundamental mechanism for ensuring the practical application of our national commitment to tolerance and inclusion Drawing on in depth interviews with Canada's leading human rights experts and extensive original research Eliadis explores the evolution of commissions and tribunals as vehicles of public policy and considers their mandate to mediate rights conflicts in such contested areas as hate speech religious freedoms and sexuality She provides a frank assessment of how Canada's human rights system functions and argues that misplaced critiques have prevented urgent and necessary discussions about the reforms that are needed to improve fairness and equality before the law and to ensure institutional independence impartiality and competence Speaking Out on Human Rights shows how our human rights system plays a unique and important role in the rights revolution both in Canada and internationally and offers promising avenues for its future development      Quality Matters John Winston Mayne,2018-12-12 Information regular systematic reliable is the life blood of democracy and the fuel of effective management Surely today there is no problem with information for this is the age of information overload It pours onto our computer screens and out of our printers Indeed many governments claim often with some justification to be more open and transparent than ever before But what if the life blood is contaminated or the fuel polluted Then the body politic sickens and the engine of public management runs rough It is the vital issue of the quality of the information we receive that this book addresses Quality Matters compares approaches across different jurisdictional settings and across three different types of information evaluation The chapters describe and analyze quality assurance in a number of countries and within a variety of international organizations These have been selected either because they are widely considered to be leaders in evaluating information or because they have experience with assuring quality information that can instruct others Contributors are from Australia Canada the European Union France the Netherlands New Zealand Sweden Switzerland United Kingdom United States and the World Bank This pioneering study analyzes practices for assuring the quality of evaluation performance auditing and reporting in the face of political organizational and technical obstacles A final chapter addresses the extent to which quality assurance systems become bothersome rituals or remain meaningful mechanisms to ensure quality control This well structured volume will be of particular interest to policymakers and adds much to the literature on program evaluation and performance auditing      Management of Public Debt by the Division of Development and Budget in the Ministry of Finance and Development Planning Botswana.
