Dear Scholarship Selection Committee:

As her maternal aunt, I have had the pleasure of knowing Dominique Powers since she was born. All through K-12th grade, Dominique could be observed displaying responsibility, and has exceeded the expectations of her parents, teachers, and peers alike.

Always energetic and competent, Dominique has a fearless, yet unique ability to initiate change and accomplish tasks. To this end, she independently executed an innovative, profitable cake business, in which she obtained a LLC. Moreover, she's learned how to professionally groom dogs, be an exemplary caregiver in an adult care facility, and became a podiatrist's assistant.

Dominique is an exceptional team player, and welcomes opportunities to assist others in being proactive and accomplishing goals. Consistently setting herself as an example, she was a member of the Dansville, MI student council (4 years), qualified and was accepted to both the National Technical Honors Society (2 years) and the National Honors Society (2 years), and was elected class president (3 years). Additionally, and continuing to maintain a high GPA, she included a year of Future Farmers of America to gain agricultural knowledge. By her senior year, Dominique's leadership qualities and interactions with others, led to her receiving the highly regarded honor, and title, of homecoming queen.

13 years ago, I became a Certified Doula and subsequently a Certified Midwife. During the duration of both trainings, I'd bring home placentas (acquired with permission at home births). Fascinated by the human body and babies in particular, Dominique would don gloves and learn (inspect) beside me. These years proved to be the beginning of her desire to become an obstetrical nurse, and she has worked tirelessly to achieve her goal since graduation.

Dominique consistently strives for excellence, and demands the utmost success from herself. Her aforementioned accomplishments, effort, and determination, make Dominique a perfect candidate for your scholarship. Your generous opportunity will provide her the fortunate ability to continue her journey towards becoming an RN. A profession in which she will continue to give back to others and excel.

Thank you for considering my niece, Dominique Powers. Please contact me if you have any questions regarding her character or achievements.

Yours sincerely,

Heidi L. Woodman
