Globalization and Public Policy David Audretsch, Erik Lehmann, Aileen Richardson, Silvio Vismara, 2015-06-04 This volume of selected articles was released in light of the new economic social and environmental challenges Europe and the United States have been faced with following the end of the Cold War and in the evolving era of globalization National security immigration and the provision of health and other key social services call for a radically different outlook in terms of policy discussions The contributors of this book focus on seven key policy issues and challenges that currently affect the United States and Europe income distribution the gender pay gap crime and security unemployment health care the demographic question and environmental regulation The purpose of this volume is to analyze how public policy within the European context is responding to the challenges posed by this new global era

The Nordic Labor Market and Migration Giang Ho, Ms. Kazuko Shirono, 2015-12-04 The large influx of migrants to Nordic countries in recent years is challenging the adoptability of Nordic labor market institutions while also adding to potential growth This paper examines the trends economic drivers and labor market implications of migration to Nordic countries with a particular focus on economic migration as distinct from the recent large flows of asylum seekers Our analysis finds that migration inflows to the Nordics are influenced by both cyclical and structural factors Although migration helpfully dampens overheating pressures during periods of strong demand and over the longer term will cushion the decline in labor supply from population aging in the near term unemployment can rise especially among the young and lower skilled The analysis highlights the need to adapt Nordic labor market institutions in a manner that better facilitates the integration of migrants into employment In particular greater wage flexibility at the firm level and continued strong active labor market measures will help improve labor market outcomes among immigrants
