Characters:

Brady- A 13-year-old boy who lives on Chesapeake Bay in Maryland. He is kind, has several friends and gets good grades in school. He is bothered easily, however, which leads to his troubles towards the middle of the book.

JT- One of Brady's two best friends along with Digger. His real name is Jeremy Tyler. He lives on a chicken farm yet is fond of computers. He has a father in the hospital waiting for a kidney transplant; JT and his sister Kate apply as donors but do not match.

Digger- Brady's other best friend whose real name is Michael Griswald. Digger's father is a construction worker and often fights with his wife. Digger has a grudge against the new neighbors, the DiAngelos, as they built their house on his grandfather's land.

Carl- Brady's cousin, a paramedic/firefighter who spends lots of time with Brady. Carl often helps him work through difficult situations through good advice and by taking him to an aquarium or movie to take his mind off of the problem.

The conflict of this story could fall into all four categories, but it most fits with Man vs. Man. I say this because the main event of this story involves a "practical joke" against another person that turns deadly. It also loosely fits with Man vs. Self as the main character, Brady, has a secret that he describes as a "weight upon his shoulders," causing him much emotional distress.

The story begins on the Chesapeake Bay in Maryland near the Corlica River. The DiAngelo family moves into a mansion built on Digger's grandfather's sold land, making Digger angry. One evening, Brady makes an apparently sarcastic comment about how Digger could get back at the DiAngelos by drilling holes into the bottom of their kayak as a practical joke, giving the victim "an early morning swim." Digger takes this seriously and threatens JT if he doesn't agree to help him drill the holes. This causes the death of the DiAngelos's 3-year-old son Ben. Brady soon finds out and months later, while out on his father's fishing boat, he tells his father everything. Brady's father tells the authorities about the crime and both Digger and JT are sentenced to 9 months at a forestry camp.

I think the most interesting part of the book was when Brady broke down and told his father what had happened to make Ben die. The many separate parts of the book going on at once all came together at this point, answering many questions I had. The timeframe in this part of the story is all within a couple months but seems like only a week; the conviction and trial happen very quickly. JT and Digger plead guilty and are sentenced to 9 months at a forestry camp; Brady thinks this is much better than 9 months at a detention center.

From my perspective, the theme of this book is to always tell the truth and take responsibility for your actions. Brady was honest and came forward towards the end of the book and told his dad everything; how the kayak got holes drilled into it, who drilled them, etc. He was mature enough to admit that he had a minor part in it, his friends pleaded guilty at the courthouse- they all did the right thing by coming forward and admitting it. It is always much easier to tell the truth at the beginning than to lie and be discovered later. The result of telling the truth was the fact that the consequences were not as bad as they could have been, had the adults found out from another source. If everyone did this, just admitting their mistakes, things would be much easier to cope with.

I would definitely recommend this book; it was the best book that I've read in a while. Of course, while that's just my opinion, it was nominated for a Maud Hart Lovelace award, so I can back my statement. I liked how the story switched time frames a few times- from 6 months ago to 2 months ago, to the present, and so on, until the last 50 pages of the book when everything came together as one. I liked the fact that the book was written in first person so that I could gain a little bit from Brady's perspective and view on things. The only thing I didn't like about the book was the fact that I wanted to know what happened after the trial when Digger and JT were convicted; it was somewhat of a cliffhanger ending. All in all, though, it was a great book.

Red Kayak Report:

The Red Kayak John Weber, 2006-11 Jordan Gunn can't swim at least he can't swim in the cold dirty lake at summer camp. Fortunately he meets Nick Dietrich the waterfront director who helps him overcome his fears and eventually have enough confidence to pass his swimming test and learn to kayak. Jordan's first relationship with Nick is that of hero worship. When Jordan helps Nick rescue two of Jordan's friends from the lake at night Jordan's hero worship turns into a deep friendship. Later Nick takes Jordan on his first whitewater kayak trip in northern Wisconsin on the Wolf River. Jordan discovers that it's much harder to kayak on a moving river than on a lake and he is terrified of the rushing water. Early in the trip Nick is seriously injured in an accident that Jordan thinks he caused. Since Nick can no longer paddle Jordan must overcome his fears of the water and paddle by himself almost twenty miles to the take out point to get help to rescue Nick. After Nick is rescued Jordan must confront his guilt and somehow maintain his friendship with Nick. Up From Bottom Linda Hozdic, 2017-09-26 Johnny suffers the loss of his mom and Nana while his dad tries to cope by drinking whiskey. Aunt Bev his dad's sister and Uncle Jack make an effort to help. Two girls Julie and Sarah intervene in their own unique ways. Over six months Johnny becomes more confident and wants to make a difference in the world. Just as rainbows often follow storms growth and new goals can emerge from loss and grief.

Red Kayak Priscilla Cummings, 2004 Brady loves life on the Chesapeake Bay with his friends J T and Digger. But developers and rich families are moving into the area and while Brady befriends some of them like the DiAngelos his parents and friends are bitter about the changes. Tragedy strikes when the DiAngelos kayak overturns in the bay and Brady wonders if it was more than an accident. Soon Brady discovers the terrible truth behind the kayak's sinking and it will change the lives of those he loves forever. Priscilla Cummings deftly weaves a suspenseful tale of three teenagers caught in a wicked web of deception.

Snapper....Confessions of a News of the World Photographer Paul Barker, 2011 The day that the closure of the News of the World was announced will forever be regarded as the saddest in the entire history of journalism. Paul Barker was one of the handful of freelance photographers used on a full time basis by the paper so when it came the news was a devastating bombshell. After over 20 years working as a photojournalist with 12 of those on the News of the World he has been uniquely placed to give an insight into what it was like to work on a Sunday tabloid. From photography tips to getting into events without a pass Snapper provides a fantastic and highly amusing window into the world of a national newspaper photographer. Rather than an expose into the phone hacking scandal that finally engulfed the paper Snapper Confessions of a News of the World Photographer is a celebration of some of its finest moments. Recounted in a personal and engaging style it is a series of often hilarious and sometimes heartbreaking anecdotes. It chronicles some of the best known as well as some of the more obscure stories covered by what many have come to regard as the world's greatest newspaper.
