Slow and steady

At first thought it might seem like Emma and Ella are best buddies. They make such spectacular chemistry at the court; they must know each other really well. However, the real story is completely different. The only reason why these two prodigies expertly keep the crowd excited throughout the entire game is because of their incredible talent and skills. Every single student of East Lansing High School is aware about the rivalry between these frenemies.

Emma is the first one in practice and she stays at the gym long after everyone has left. This skinny, five feet tall girl works out twice, takes five hundred shots and practices all her twenty moves every single day. The sad part is people don't seem to notice her as much as she deserves; they think Emma doesn't have any potential and anyone could be at her level just by practicing a bit more. However Emma is not the type of a person who would give so easily. As each day goes by, Ella's pride confidence keeps increasing and her performance slowly gets worse. On the other hand, Emma stays focused and she's got her hopes high; she continues to get better everyday. Just a few years later, when both the girls are old enough to
