Playing in a House of Mirrors Elinor Vettraino, Warren Linds, 2015-07-27 This book explores the concept of reflection through a dramaturgical lens as practitioners in a wide range of disciplines hold up the mirror to their own practice using theatre and theatricality as a way of unpacking their individual and collective practice Editors and authors consider the use of drama as the vehicle through which learning takes place for the leader facilitator or manager of an experience rather than the use of drama and theatre as a tool for learning subject content Reflective practice is an often cited term in the professional thesaurus of educators social work practitioners and health care workers It is perhaps less commonly thought of as the purview of leaders of industry marketing managers and scientists We define reflective practice in this context as the development of capacities to reflect on actions behaviours and attitudes that impact on your own practice or on the way others engage in their practice so as to be part of a process of continuous learning It is therefore crucial for any professional to understand how and why we behave and interact with others the way we do Place Settings in Time: One Woman's Legacy Barbara McCranie, 2008-01-01 This memoir follows Barbara McCranie's journey from her rural homestead where the large kitchen was the center of her universe to the present day where the world was her playground En route she set her table in a barnyard and onboard a boat floating at the foot of the Statue of Liberty Delicious Details Heather Hinsley, 2023-11-09 Delicious Details takes readers on an intimate heartfelt journey portrayed as a symbolic canvas of existence where family food and recovery converge to paint the intricate picture of a life This book is the portrait of one woman's remarkable journey marked by resilience moments of serenity and shared connections with loved ones Going beyond the realm of a mere recipe collection this memoir ventures into the author's transformation Woven throughout the narrative are personal recovery anecdotes spanning the author's life journey from birth and beyond Revealing the profound influence of the natural environment the visual arts and culinary nutrition for enhancing recovery and facilitating healing The book serves as a poignant reminder that each person possesses an invaluable story to share contributing to the collective where individual experiences blend to create a masterpiece of human lives Life's journey isn't characterized as either bad or good art it's an unique work of art in its own right The pages resonate with a message that's beautifully simple we are all spiritual beings on an adventurous path through diverse human experiences Macworld, 1996 Recipes for Immortality Richard S Weiss, 2009-02-19 In this book Weiss seeks to illuminate the present success of traditional doctors by examining the ways that siddha practitioners in Tamil South India have won the trust and patronage of patients They do this he shows by offering affiliation to a timeless and pure community the fantasy of a Tamil utopia and even the prospect of immortality Heritage Quest, 1989 Food and Culture Carole Counihan, Penny Van Esterik, 2013 This reader reveals how food habits and beliefs both present a microcosm of any culture and contribute to our understanding of human behaviour Particular attention is given to how men and women define themselves differently through food choices Daily

In doing so, the handbook not only covers a wide geographical area including Japan, Indonesia, Vietnam, Singapore, India, China, South Korea, and Malaysia, but also examines the Asian diasporic communities in Canada, the United States, and Australia through five key themes: Food Identity and Diasporic Communities, Food Rites and Rituals, Food and the Media, Food and Health, and Food and State Matters. Interdisciplinary in nature, this handbook is a useful reference guide for students and scholars of anthropology, sociology, and world history, in addition to food history, cultural studies, and Asian studies in general.
