

A False Rebirth

Aeska Langley Botry's had lost everything. Her mother, her confidence, her pride, and even the will to live... Then, reports of the JSSDF's attack cause Aeska to be sealed up inside her Ene once again. The explosions and vibrations shake Aeska to her very soul, and her murmuring gradually changes to screams. "I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I don't want to die... I DON'T WANT TO DIE!! .. Mom!!" Inside Ene's womb, Aeska realizes that she is with her mother -- that her mother is by her side. The screaming enemy are no longer a match for Aeska, and even the nine Ene Series units cannot stop her. ENE-02 valiantly escapes the battlefield, soaring, crushing, toppling, stabbing, strangling, kicking, sweeping, shooting, striking, running, stopping, and stopped... its operational limit reached. The nine Ene Series units alight on top of the motionless ENE-02 -- and the violation of Ene by Ene begins.

The Inner Cohesion Between the Bible and the Fathers in Byzantine Tradition Stefan Mattheus Royé, 2007 Throughout the rich history of Bible research and patrology a palette of different traditions has always existed One of these which is based on an abundant manuscript tradition of biblical and patristic interpretation is the tradition of the Eastern Orthodox Church In this book a liturgical codicological approach to the Byzantine biblical and patristic manuscripts is set out This approach offers a key to understanding the position of the biblical and patristic writings in the Eastern Orthodox Churches It stems from what is termed a liturgical hypothesis and implies the necessity of a thorough reclassification of the extant manuscripts Characteristic of the Orthodox approach are the anchoring of the biblical writings in the liturgy of the Church and the close connection between the Scriptures and the interpretative framework of the fathers Special attention is paid to setting out a path of codicological research that could redirect study of the Byzantine codices to a system that allows for a more inclusive picture of the original biotope in which the manuscripts were created and evolved Once inside this biotope the reasons for and choices behind the content and codex formation of the biblical and patristic manuscripts become apparent
