Sent Home To Die:

Awareness of Dying Barney G. Glaser, Anselm L. Strauss, 2017-07-28 Should patients be told they are dying How do families react when one of their members is facing death Who should reveal that death is imminent How does hospital staff doctors nurses and attendants act toward the dying patient and his family Bodies of Knowledge Efua Prah, Susan Levine, 2021-12-01 Spanning the countries of South Africa Swaziland and Ghana this collection of work brings into focus child and youth experience together as a collage of anthropology creative writing poetry and the fine arts Woven together by questions related to the political economy of child and youth well being identity formation and the multiple layers through which children articulate their health narrative Bodies of Knowledge considers living in and coping with chronic illness spirit possession and death The growth in Critical Health Humanities and the Arts globally suggests the desire for blended efforts to draw in a wider breadth of knowledge that cuts across the divided worlds of critical social science and the arts This book set in an African context offers myriad possibilities for cross disciplinary synergies as learning sites It is a critical contribution to the field of children and childhood studies Sudden Death the Day i Died calibre (0.7.22)

[<http://calibre-ebook.com>], 2010-12-28 My 15 Year Journey in Africa Sister Mary Angelita Molina, OSF, 2010-06-17 In this book Sister Angelita tells her story of those 15 years in Nigeria Sister Angelita did all this missionary activity while constantly begging for prayers and financial support to carry on her work Her love of God shines through in everything that Sister Angelita accomplished During her worst tribulations and there were many her constant prayer was God is Good Indeed each of the stories Angelita relates in her little book radiates her dependence on Divine Providence The chapters show how God worked through her to ease the afflictions of body soul and spirit of the people she loved so much Because of her their lives became a little more bearable This little dynamo of a person never takes no for an answer When the going gets tough she works all the harder to accomplish her objectives I know of no one with a more determined spirit Sister Angelita and I have known each other for 45 years and this is my testimony to a woman of God who radiates the words of Jesus Live in Me as I do in you those who live in Me and I in them will bear much fruit John 14 4 5 Sarah E Wellinger Longtime Friend

Medicine River Mary Annette Pember, 2025-04-22 A sweeping and deeply personal account of Native American boarding schools in the United States and the legacy of abuse wrought by them in an attempt to destroy Native culture and life From the mid nineteenth century to the late 1930s tens of thousands of Native children were pulled from their tribal communities to attend boarding schools whose stated aim was to save the Indian by way of assimilation In reality these boarding schools sponsored by the U S government but often run by various religious orders with little to no regulation were a calculated attempt to dismantle tribes by pulling apart Native families Children were beaten for speaking their Native languages denied food clothing and comfort and forced to work menial jobs in terrible conditions all while utterly deprived of love and affection Amongst those thousands of children was Ojibwe journalist Mary Pember s mother who was sent to a boarding school in northern Wisconsin at age five The trauma of her experience cast a pall over Pember's own childhood and her relationship with her mother Highlighting both her mother's experience and the experiences of countless other students at such schools their families and their children Medicine River paints a stark but hopeful portrait of communities still reckoning with the trauma of acculturation religion and abuse caused by the state Through searing interviews and careful reporting Pember traces the evolution and continued rebirth of Native cultures and nations in relation to the country that has been intent on eradicating them

From extensive interviews Kurzman reveals the agonizing truth behind one of America's greatest military tragedies

Time for Dying Graham McAleer,Barney Glaser,2017-09-29 This book has been written for those who must work with and give care to the dying Our discussion is not simple narrative or description it is a rendition of reality informed by a rather densely woven and fairly abstract theoretical scheme This scheme evolved gradually during the course of our research The second audience for this volume is social scientists who are less interested in dying than they are in useful substantive theory Our central concern is with the temporal aspects of work The theory presented here may be useful to social scientists interested in areas far removed from health medicine or hospitals The training of physicians and nurses equips them for the technical aspects of dealing with illness Medical students learn not to kill patients through error and to save lives through diagnosis and treatment But their teachers put little or no emphasis on how to talk with dying patients how or whether to disclose an impending death or even how to approach the subject with the wives husbands children and parents of the dying Students of nursing are taught how to give nursing care to terminal patients as well as how to give post mortem care But the psychological aspects of dealing with the dying and their families are virtually absent from training Although physicians and nurses are highly skilled at handling the bodies of terminal patients their behavior to them otherwise is actually outside the province of professional standards Much if not most nontechnical conduct toward and in the presence of dying patients and their families is profoundly influenced by common sense assumptions essentially untouched by professional or even rational considerations or by current advancement in social psychological knowledge The process of dying in hospitals is much affected by professional training and codes and by the particular conditions of work generated by hospitals as places of work A third important consideration in int
