

We Refugees

I come from a musical place
Where they shoot me for my song
And my brother has been tortured
By my brother in my land.

I come from a beautiful place
Where they hate my shade of skin
They don't like the way I pray
And they ban free poetry.

I come from a beautiful place
Where girls cannot go to school
There you are told what to believe
And even young boys must grow beards.

I come from a great old forest
I think it is now a field
And the people I once knew
Are not there now.

We can all be refugees
Nobody is safe,
All it takes is a mad leader
Or no rain to bring forth food,
We can all be refugees
We can all be told to go,
We can be hated by someone
For being someone.

I come from a beautiful place
Where the valley floods each year
And each year the hurricane tells us
That we must keep moving on.

I come from an ancient place
All my family were born there
And I would like to go there
But I really want to live.

I come from a sunny, sandy place
Where tourists go to darken skin
And dealers like to sell guns there
I just can't tell you what's the price.

I am told I have no country now
I am told I am a lie
I am told that modern history books
May forget my name.

We can all be refugees
Sometimes it only takes a day,
Sometimes it only takes a handshake
Or a paper that is signed.
We all came from refugees
Nobody simply just appeared,
Nobody's here without a struggle,
And why should we live in fear
Of the weather or the troubles?
We all came here from somewhere.

The Palestinian National Revival Moshe Shemesh, 2018-09-12 Former Israeli intelligence officer Moshe Shemesh offers a fresh understanding of the complex history and politics of the Middle East in this new analysis of the Palestinian national movement Shemesh looks at the formative years of the movement that emerged following the 1948 War and traces the leaders their objectives and their weaknesses fragmentation and conflicts with their neighbors He follows the formation of the Sons of Nakba the establishment of Fatah the reframing of Jordan as analogous with the Palestinian cause and the creation of the Palestine Liberation Organization and its new expression of nationalism until the 1967 War With unprecedented access to Arabic sources Shemesh provides new perspectives on inter Arab politics and the history of the intractable Arab Israeli conflict

With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl, 2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of

Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community

Language and Literacy Education of Asylum

Seekers and Refugees Azlin Zaiti Zainal, Meng Huat Chau, Jessica Rummy, 2025-03-14 The educational experiences of youth refugees and asylum seekers during migration cross border movements protracted displacements and pre resettlement phases have largely remained as a black box Due to the lack of widespread studies on the existential crisis of this population group our understanding of what transpires during these phases has been rather insubstantial There are also concerns regarding the decision making abilities of various stakeholders about pre resettlement educational provisions for these youths where the severity of their interrupted formal schooling would have been overlooked Considering such occurrences this monograph delves deep into the pre resettlement educational experiences of a generation of untapped potential from the Myanmar Chin ethnic group in Malaysia where we attempt to address existing concerns and emerging issues through longitudinal research analysis and a series of educational initiatives This monograph uses an ecological framework to illustrate the complexity of the education ecosystem for refugee youths during phases of transition It also highlights the significance of a safe secured and sustainable informal education system during crucial or emergency times In particular the book examines the language learning opportunities and literacy practices within the premises of sociopolitical socioeconomic and sociocultural dynamics which have shaped the agencies of these students and volunteer teachers who work with them The monograph further provides recommendations for assisting refugee learners and volunteer teachers in language and literacy education A multitude of other potential approaches to enhancing the language literacy and overall educational development of refugee youths are proposed with a focus on empowering them as active agents in their learning journey This book will be of interest to educators language practitioners academics and stakeholders engaged in the provision and development of refugee education especially in a pre resettlement and transitional context

The Migrant in Arab

Literature Martina Censi, Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-12-20 This edited book offers a collection of fresh and critical essays that explore the representation of the migrant subject in modern and contemporary Arabic literature and discuss its role in shaping new forms of transcultural and transnational identities The selection of essays in this volume offers a set of new insights on a cluster of tropes self discovery alienation nostalgia transmission and translation of knowledge sense of exile reconfiguration of the relationship with the past and the identity and the building of transnational identity A coherent yet multi faceted narrative of micro stories and of transcultural and transnational Arab identities will emerge from the essays the volume aims at reversing the traditional perspective according to which a migrant subject is a non political actor In contrast to many books about migration and literature this one explores how the migrant subject becomes a specific literary trope a catalyst of modern alienation displacement and uncertain identity suggesting new forms of subjectification Multiple representations of the migrant subject inform and perform the possibility of new post national and transcultural individual and group identities and actively contribute to rewriting and decolonizing history      Poetry in Exile Josef

Hrdlička,2020-09-01 In his book Josef Hrdlička opens the question of what exactly constitutes Exile Poetry and indeed whether it amounts to a category as fundamental as Romantic or Bucolic lyricism He covers the intricately complex and diverse topic of exile by exploring selected literary texts from antiquity to the present giving due attention to writers that have influenced the exile discourse from Ovid Goethe and Baudelaire to the thinkers and poets of the 20th century like Adorno or Saint John Perse Against this backdrop of exile poetics he turns his attention to Czech poets who left their homeland after the Communist Coup of 1948 and were notable contributors to Czech literature abroad Hrdlička considers the works of Ivan Blatný Milada Součková Ivan Diviš and Petr Král to show the continuity and changes in the western poetic tradition and expressions of exile      Soundin' Canaan Paul db Watkins,2025-01-21 Part exploration of a key group of Black Canadian poets part literary cultural and musical history Soundin' Canaan demonstrates how music in Black Canadian poetry is not solely aesthetic but a form of social ethical and political expression Soundin' Canaan refers to the code name often used for Canada during the Black migration to Canada The book analyzes the contributions of key Black Canadian poets including their poetic styles and their performances The book has several key objectives including recuperating the collision of the historical and the Biblically derived figure of Canaan the promised land of freedom and security for an African American population seeking to leave the shackles of slavery behind and the northern terminus of the underground railroad Centering around the poetry of George Elliott Clarke Dionne Brand M NourbeSe Philip Wayne Compton and rapper Knaan it delves into how these poets draw inspiration from African American and Afro diasporic musical genres such as blues jazz reggae and dub hip hop and remix to reshape the notions of identity and citizenship Soundin' Canaan asks what does Canadian citizenship sound like especially when voiced by Black Canadian poets who embrace a fluid and multicultural form of citizenship that moves between local and global spaces much like music does Using a DJ Methodology the author mixes in close readings of poetry music cultural and literary history as well as various interviews with the poets The book includes an accompanying soundtrack to further enhance the reading experience Listening to the poets in this book that is in listening closely to the poems sounds and musical samples they bring into the mix constitutes sonic citizenship This co performative act of reading listening and sounding serves as a reminder of how citizens inhabit and negotiate life in Canada beyond the formal legal framework of the nation state      Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas Sarah J.

Donovan,Kim Johnson,Anna J. Small Roseboro,Barbara Edler,Gayle Sands,2025-09-01 Assessing Students with Poetry Writing Across Content Areas reimagines formative assessment by advocating for a dynamic poetic approach that delves into students meaning making processes It is a guide for teachers seeking innovative approaches to formative assessment promoting a holistic creative reflective and collaborative learning environment It challenges the limitations of traditional worksheets and quizzes urging educators to move beyond seeking restrictive answers and embrace students texts as pathways to understanding The authors put forward poetry as a vigorous tool and writing poetry as an act to foster deep learning across content areas Practical examples of acrostic poems haiku and pantoum demonstrate the adaptability of poetic forms to diverse subjects Through adaptable lesson plans that can be used across history math world languages ELA and science the book encourages intentional poetic writing to learn activities and explores how poetry might present itself as a short creative assessment tool that helps teachers see what their students know and can do while also offering them the space to make new meaning in their original poetry This book is a key resource for in service educators teaching grades 6 12

Anthropocene Poetry Yvonne Reddick, 2023-11-03 Anthropocene Poetry Place Environment and Planet argues that the idea of the Anthropocene is inspiring new possibilities for poetry It can also change the way we read and interpret poems If environmental poetry was once viewed as linked to place this book shows how poets are now grappling with environmental issues from the local to the planetary climate change and the extinction crisis nuclear weapons and waste plastic pollution and the petroleum industry This book intervenes in debates about culture and science traditional poetic form and experimental ecopoetics to show how poets are collaborating with environmental scientists and joining environmental activist movements to respond to this time of crisis From the canonical work of Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney to award winning poets Alice Oswald Pascale Petit Kei Miller and Karen McCarthy Woolf this book explores major figures from the past alongside acclaimed contemporary voices It reveals Seamus Heaney s support for conservation causes and Ted Hughes s astonishingly forward thinking research on climate change it discusses how Pascale Petit has given poetry to Extinction Rebellion and how Karen McCarthy Woolf set sail with scientists to write about plastic pollution This book deploys research on five poetry archives in the UK USA and Ireland and the author s insider insights into the commissioning processes and collaborative methods that shaped important contemporary poetry publications Anthropocene Poetry finds that environmental poetry is flourishing in the face of ecological devastation Such poetry speaks of the anxieties and dilemmas of our age and searches for paths towards resilience and resistance The Politics of Canonicity Michael Gluzman, 2002-12-30

This book explores the complex relations among the hegemonic triad of territory nation and national literature that have characterized the modern European nation state In the case of Hebrew literature this triad was unattainable and its components fiercely contested hence the literary field itself was responsible for shaping the nation preceding the nation state itself Poet's Market, 1989 Judson Jerome, 1988-10 Doing Respectful Research Susan Tilley, 2019-01-14T00:00:00Z

Doing Respectful Research is situated within a critical feminist postmodern framework and addresses the complexities of conducting respectful qualitative research with human participants Three themes overlap and inform chapter discussions developing a critical reflexivity understanding the distance dynamic and engaging in respectful research praxis The text illustrates how power privilege and passion influence decisions about what gets researched who is positioned as researcher or participant and how data are collected analyzed and ultimately represented in public ways Tilley explores the intersecting elements of the research process which include deciding on a research focus and articulating research questions choosing an appropriate research site and participants collecting analyzing and representing data and making decisions about the dissemination and publication of findings She emphasizes the dilemmas researchers experience when faced with issues of respectful representation of data participants and research contexts Unique to the book are the comprehensive discussions of the advisement process and the student advisor relationship and Tilley s use of her doctoral research to carefully illustrate elements of the research process Each chapter ends with an annotated bibliography of relevant research connected to concepts addressed in the chapter Tilley offers a comprehensive consideration of research ethics including guidance for the completion of institutional requirements for review of research involving human participants and an exploration of the complicated ethical issues that emerge during the research process Doing Respectful Research is written for student researchers individuals who teach and advise students instructors of qualitative research courses in social sciences health and education and community members interested in qualitative methods and conducting research

Teaching Ethics through Literature Suzanne S. Choo,2021-07-01 Teaching Ethics through Literature provides in depth understanding of a new and exciting shift in the fields of English education Literature Language Arts and Literacy through exploring their connections with ethics The book pioneers an approach to integrating ethics in the teaching of literature This has become increasingly relevant and necessary in our globally connected age A key feature of the book is its integration of theory and practice It begins with a historical survey of the emergence of the ethical turn in Literature education and grounds this on the ideas of influential Ethical Philosophers and Literature scholars Most importantly it provides insights into how teachers can engage students in ethical concerns and apply practices of Ethical Criticism using rich on the ground case studies of high school Literature teachers in Australia Singapore and the United States

Migration, Identity and Resistance in the Postcolonial Nation-State Sk Sagir Ali,Tanmoy Kundu,Saikat Sarkar,Sanjoy Saren,2025-02-25 This volume represents a significant contribution to the fields of migration studies postcolonial theory and critical geography It critically engages with the intersections of power space and identity to deepen our understanding of the challenges and possibilities of negotiating citizenship and belonging in an increasingly interconnected and precarious world The book interrogates the construction of nationalist narratives and their role in perpetuating exclusionary paradigms which marginalize certain demographic segments and reinforce hierarchical notions of belonging Further it examines the bio political mechanisms that engender conditions of precarity reshaping conceptions of citizenship and nationhood in response to environmental degradation population control policies and state surveillance The essays in the volume delve into the diverse factors driving displacement encompassing both state driven policies of engineered displacement and environmental factors such as climate change resource depletion and natural disasters They also focus on the marginalized spaces of displacement and explore how these sites become loci of resistance and incubators of alternative forms of belonging Interdisciplinary in its approach and rigorous in its empirical analysis the volume will stimulate further research provoke new questions and inspire transformative interventions in the fields of migration and diaspora studies literary and cultural studies politics and political processes and sustainability studies
