Kharkhurin,2012-09-03 In this monograph Anatoliy V Kharkhurin presents the results of his empirical investigation into the impact of multilingual practice on an individual's creative potential. Until now the relationship between these two activities has received little attention in the academic community. The book makes an attempt to resuscitate this theme and provides a solid theoretical framework supported by contemporary empirical research conducted in a variety of geographic linguistic and sociocultural locations. This study demonstrates that several factors such as the multilinguals age of language acquisition, proficiency in these languages and experience with cultural settings in which these languages were acquired have a positive impact on selective attention and language mediated concept activation mechanisms. Together these facilitate generative and innovative capacities of creative thinking. This book will be of great interest not only to scholars in the fields of multilingualism and creativity but also to educators and all those interested in enhancing foreign language learning and fostering creativity.

The Waste Fix William G. Little,2020-03-11 First published in 2002. This book explores the philosophical, social and aesthetic implications of twentieth century America's obsession with eliminating waste. Through interdisciplinary engagement with fiction and popular culture, William Little traces the way this obsession finds expression in powerful social forces, e.g. the drive to consume conspicuously, the Progressive era campaign to manage scientifically the current demand to reduce, reuse, recycle, and shows how such forces are governed by an idealism that links proper treatment of waste with the promise of salvation.

CED Alumni News, 1983 Very Sincerely Yours Kerry Winfrey,2021-06-15 A charming and heartwarming new romantic comedy by the acclaimed author of Waiting for Tom. Hanks' Kerry Winfrey Teddy Phillips never thought she would still be spending every day surrounded by toys at almost thirty years old. But working at a vintage toy store is pretty much all she has going on in her life after being unceremoniously dumped by her longtime boyfriend. The one joy that she has kept is her not so guilty pleasure, Everett's Place, a local children's show hosted by Everett St. James, a man whom Teddy finds very soothing and okay cute. Teddy finds the courage to write to him, feeling slightly like one of the children who write to him on his show. He always gives sound advice and seems like he has everything figured out, and he pretty much does. Everett has a great support system, wonderful friends, and his dream job. But there is still that persistent feeling in the back of his mind that something is missing. When a woman named Theodora starts writing to Everett, he is drawn to her honesty and vulnerability. They continue writing to each other all the while living their lives without meeting. When their worlds collide, however, they must both let go of their fears and figure out what they truly want, and if the future they want includes each other.

California Dreaming Neil Spiller,2023-02-28 California has historically provided a fertile breeding ground for radical modes of architectural thinking, practice and building, which from the 1920s onwards was sparked by the presence of eminent migrant architects. It was also central to the birth of cool mid-century Modernism, all in parallel with the intense concentration of design and experimentation in the film, aerospace and tech industries. This AD issue explores the influential formal tropes generated in the nexus between Los Angeles and the Bay Area, as well as the thriving theoretical preoccupations that have brought California's architects global attention Between Hollywood and the Silicon Valley this unique context has nurtured and become the platform for those who not only build buildings around the world but have also founded and directed schools and educated emergent generations of architects Contributors Frances Anderton Jasmine Benyamin Blaine Brownell Courtney Coffman Heather Flood and Aaron Gensler David Freeland and Brennan Buck Craig Hodgetts Max Kuo Eva Menuhin Nicole Meyer Jill Stoner and Grace Mitchell Tada Featured architects Atelier Manferdini Ball Nogues Studio Faulders Studio FreelandBuck Hood Design Studio Oyler Wu Collaborative Preliminary Research Office Stereobot and Synthesis Design Architecture
