The Complete Stories of Paul Laurence Dunbar Paul Laurence Dunbar,2005 The son of former slaves Paul Laurence Dunbar was one of the most prominent and publicly recognized figures in American literature at the turn of the twentieth century Thirty three years old at the time of his death in 1906 he had published four novels four collections of short stories and fourteen books of poetry not to mention numerous songs plays and essays in newspapers and magazines around the world In the century following his death Dunbar slipped into relative obscurity remembered mainly for his dialect poetry or as a footnote to other more canonical figures from the period The Complete Stories of Paul Laurence Dunbar showcases his gifts as a writer of short fiction and provides key insights into the tensions and themes of Dunbar s literary achievement Through examining the 104 stories written by Dunbar between 1890 and 1905 readers will be able to better understand Dunbar s specific attempts to maintain his artistic integrity while struggling with America s racist stereotypes His work interrogated the color line that informed American life and dictated his role as an artist in American letters Editors Gene

Jarrett and Thomas Morgan identify major themes and implications in Dunbar's work Available in one convenient comprehensive and definitive volume for the first time The Complete Stories of Paul Laurence Dunbar illustrates the complexity of his literary life and legacy ABOUT THE EDITORS Gene Jarrett is an assistant professor of English at the University of Maryland College Park He is co editor with Henry Louis Gates Jr of a forthcoming anthology New Negro Criticism Essays on Race Representation and African American Culture Thomas Morgan is a lecturer at the University of Tennessee Knoxville His research and teaching interests focus on critical race theory in late nineteenth century American and African American literature specifically as it applies to the politics of narrative form Stories of Great National Songs Nicholas Smith, 1899 Dixie's Dirty Secret James Dickerson, 1998 After the landmark Brown v Board of Education ruling in 1954 mandated the desegregation of schools nationwide the legislature in the state of Mississippi created the Mississippi State Sovereignty Commission the basic mission of which was to prevent integration in that state This book is an investigative history of the Commission other government agencies including the FBI and organized crime all of which conspired to break the law in dealing with civil rights and antiwar activists during the 1950s and 1960s The author uncovers new information about the efforts of FBI agents to combat integration and exposes the longest running conspiracy in American history The Civil War in Song and Story, 1860-1865 Frank Moore, 1889 Index to Short Stories, 1936 The Story of Our Wonderful Victories James Rankin Young, 1899 Ambrose Bierce Roy Morris, 1998 Chronicles the life and career of the acerbic author from his youth through his experiences during the Civil War to his 1913 disappearance in revolution torn Mexico OCLC Melancholia and Maturation Eric L. Tribunella, 2010-01-15 Coming of age in children's fiction often means achieving maturity through the experience of trauma In classics ranging from Old Yeller to The Outsiders a narrative of psychological pain defies expectations of childhood as a time of innocence and play In this provocative new book Eric L. Tribunella explores why trauma especially the loss of a loved object occurs in some of the most popular and critically acclaimed twentieth century American fiction for children Tribunella draws on queer theory and feminist revisions of Freud's notion of melancholia which is described as a fundamental response to loss arguing that the low grade symptoms of melancholia are in fact what characterize the mature sober and responsible American adult Melancholia and Maturation looks at how this effect is achieved in a society that purports to protect youngsters from every possible source of danger thus requiring melancholia to be induced artificially Each of the book's five chapters focuses on a different kind of lost object sacrificed so as to propel the child toward a distinctively gendered sexual ethical and national adulthood from same sex friends to the companionship of boy and his dog stories from the lost ideals of historical fiction about the American Revolution to the children killed or traumatized in Holocaust novels The author examines a wide spectrum of works including Jack London's dog tales the contemporary realistic novels of S E Hinton and Newbery Medal winners like Johnny Tremain and Bridge to Terabithia Tribunella raises fundamental questions about the value of children's literature as a whole and provides context for understanding why certain books become required reading for youth Eric L. Tribunella is assistant professor of English at the University of Southern Mississippi His articles have been published in Children's Literature Association Quarterly Children's Literature in Education The Lion and the Unicorn A Critical Journal of Children's Literature and Children's Literature
