programs human resources organizational structure and social media tools used by human service organizations The eleven chapters of this volume cover seven countries representing diverse socio political cultural and economic systems ranging from the USA and the UK to Austria Bangladesh China and Israel The perspectives presented in these chapters offer a significant contribution to theory research and practice in the management of human service organizations during times of disruptive extreme events The chapters in this book were originally published in Human Service Organizations Management Leadership Governance As One with Authority, Second Edition Jackson W. Carroll, 2011-05-11

Congregations today face both old and often new unprecedented challenges spiritual moral technological and economic for which there are no easy solutions Facing such challenges calls for pastors able to lead with authority in ways at the same time faithful to the gospel and appropriate to the congregation's setting and the issues at hand Yet many pastors are unsure of their authority often experiencing conflict as they attempt to lead Others have abused their authority and brought mistrust and suspicion to ordained ministry making it difficult for other clergy to lead In this book a new and revised edition of his earlier highly regarded work on pastoral authority and leadership Jackson Carroll brings together theological and sociological perspectives to provide an interpretation of pastoral authority as reflective leadership a style of leadership that involves vision and discernment and that is appropriate for the many roles in which pastors engage preaching worship leadership teaching counseling and shaping the congregation's corporate life In this new edition Carroll draws on what he has learned from many conversations with pastors and lay leaders since the book's initial publication as well as insights from others He also introduces helpful new case material from practicing pastors and incorporates the perspectives of several recent leadership theorists and practitioners to deepen and enhance the discussion of pastoral authority as reflective leadership

Never Trust the Bugles Harvey Stewart Turner, 2000-10 We all know about kidnappings for ransom honor glory or fate But this one involves hijacking a whole state When Victoria Wilkins is taken at gunpoint from her father's train courtesy of environmentalism on the rampage her ransom is Wyoming Her father a CEO with the usual delusions of omnipotence suffers a sea change in trying to save his daughter along with Christopher Wilson his vice president of good works Can Victoria be rescued in time and how This is a novel of love betrayed and love redeemed which answers more questions than it sets out to ask

The Criminal Justice System and Health Care Charles A. Erin, Suzanne Ost, 2007 This book examines questions of medical accountability and ethics It analyses how the criminal justice system regulates health care practice and to what extent it can and should be used as a tool to resolve ethical conflict in health care For most of the twentieth century criminal courts were engaged in matters relating to medicine principally as a forum to resolve ethical controversies over the sanctity of life However the judiciary approached this function with reluctance and a marked tendency to defer to the medical profession to define what constituted ethical and thus lawful conduct However over the past 25 years criminal courts have increasingly been drawn into these types of question and the criminal law has become a major actor in the resolution of ethical conflict The trend to prosecute for aberrant professional conduct or medical malpractice and the role of the criminal process in medicine has been analytically neglected in the UK There is scant literature addressing the appropriate boundaries of the criminal process in resolving ethical conflict the theoretical legal analysis of the law s relationship with health care or the practical impact of the criminal justice system on professionals and the delivery of health care in the UK This volume addresses these issues via a combination of theoretical analyses and key case studies drawing on the experiences of other carefully selected jurisdictions It places a particular emphasis on the appropriateness of the involvement of the criminal justice system in health care the limitations of this developing trend and solutions to the problems that arise from it
