Breaking a Rainbow, Building a Nation Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2018-10-01 Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation is a first hand account of the university protests that gripped South Africa between 2015 and 2017 widely better known as the FeesMustFall Chikane outlines the nature of student politics in the country before during and after the emergence of MustFall politics exploring the political dynamics that informed and drove the student protests and the effect that these MustFall movements have had on the nature of youth politics in the country Chikane looks at how the current nature of youth politics is different from previous youth upheavals that have defined South Africa specifically due to the fact that the protests were being led by so called coconuts who are part of the black elite Breaking a Rainbow Building a Nation poses the provocative question can coconuts be trusted with the revolution Servamus, 2007 Street Rebellion Benjamin S. Case, 2022-12-06 The complex relationship between violence and nonviolence in social movements We are living in a time of uprisings that routinely involve physical confrontation burning vehicles barricades vandalism and scuffles between protesters and authorities Yet the Left has struggled to incorporate rioting into theories of change remaining stuck in recurring debates over violence and nonviolence Civil resistance studies have popularized the term strategic nonviolence spreading the notion that violence is wholly counter productive Street Rebellion scrutinizes recent research and develops a broad and grounded portrait of the relationship between strategic nonviolence and rioting in the struggle for liberation Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Developing University Entrepreneurial Ecosystems In Sub-saharan Africa Dzidziso Samuel Kamuriwo, Sara Jones, Neil Marshall, Mary Kinoti, 2024-12-13 What is the status of university entrepreneurship and innovation ecosystems in Sub Saharan Africa SSA How could they be strengthened so that students academic staff and relevant stakeholders that are part of the ecosystems can best produce better quality ventures i e that can employ more people or make venture founders more employable This book provides a current review of the state of teaching entrepreneurship and its impact on SSA and illuminates different ways universities are strengthening their university entrepreneurship and innovation ecosystems Different approaches in the book fall into four thematic sections namely 1 the exploitation of digital infrastructure to design and deploy virtual accelerators so as to enhance both scale and reach of entrepreneurship education 2 the use of a social entrepreneurship lens to illuminate how key stakeholders can work together as well as communicate policy changes that need to be incorporated for effective implementation of ecosystems 3 ecosystem developments that focus exploiting sector specific knowledge and expertise and lastly 4 ecosystem design considerations such as factors for effective ecosystem design and curriculum development in SSA Significant outcomes from the book are highlights of how academic entrepreneurship can be harnessed to overcome challenges facing SSA The book showcases how digital technologies can be exploited to mainstream entrepreneurship and innovation within and beyond the universities thus improving access to quality education and resources to a much broader audience access In addition the book demonstrates how to effectively engage all relevant stakeholders in an entrepreneurship ecosystem including how to accurately identify all key stakeholders and assess their contextual needs in SSA education settings so as to inform ecosystem development strategies Finally the book showcases different approaches to entrepreneurship curriculum developments efforts what it takes to develop pilot or enhance curriculum in SSA as well as how provision of more support for students with specific mechanisms can be offered including different ways of including mentoring coaching or incubation and building academic industry partnership as a way of supporting students Global Food Security and Wellness Gustavo V.
