enduring divorce and numerous child custody battles Sarah Jane knew that a fresh start in Australia was their only chance of future happiness and that as a family they were making the right decisions Living the Australian dream in Alice Springs was everything they hoped for until life changing events started to test the foundations of this resilient family Using every ounce of positivity they could muster they struggled on and just as they thought the worst was over Mother Nature intervened and washed away the roots to their new life during the Brisbane floods of 2011 This story lets you experience Australian life with an inspirational woman and her courageous family as they struggle to survive challenging life events and keep their dreams alive Life is never without its challenges but how many life changing events can one family endure before they reach breaking point Find out in this heart wrenching and touching true story Two Dogs and a Suitcase Clueless in Charente Follows the French exploits of Sarah Jane and her family as they endeavour to rebuild their lives in another new country after spending four and half years in Australia The title says it all literally what they have and where they are but that s only part of the story Their goal was to focus positively on the present and to start a new optimistic chapter back in Europe nearer to the children leaving the dark clouds of the challenges they faced in Australia as a distant memory Share their experiences as they arrive in rural South West France portrayed through Sarah Jane s reflections thoughts and observations about her family and their new French lifestyle Follow Sarah Jane s tentative steps into a writing career as they start renovating a rustic cottage while managing the ups and downs of family life Once again Sarah Jane will make you laugh and cry as she endeavours to live life to the fullest with a generous helping of positive spin thrown in for good measure Our Frugal Summer in Charente An Expat s Kitchen Garden Journal Meet Sarah Jane a woman with a reputation for culinary catastrophe who tries to keep her family fed in challenging circumstances in rural France Frugal living was not part of the plan when they arrived from Australia to undertake the renovation of a quaint cottage in the Charente However when life throws them a curve ball the challenge was set How would they survive in France with very little money and two Australian cattle dogs The answer came in the form of 5 chickens 4 ducks a vegetable garden and hedgerow foraging The frugal plan was to save money by any means possible to enable any money they could earn to be invested into continuing the renovation of the cottage In true Good Life style Sarah Jane attacks this challenge head on by keeping some small livestock and converting a garden that resembled a meadow into a French potager or kitchen garden The French tradition of using produce from their potagers is renowned for enabling families to create meals that are healthy cost effective and simple There are 31 recipes for a variety of food and drinks included in a month by month account of how they transformed a neglected garden into a frugal yet productive expat kitchen garden

Unwhite Meredith McCarroll, 2018-10-15 Appalachia resides in the American imagination at the intersections of race and class in a very particular way in the tension between deep historic investments in seeing the region as pure white stock and as deeply impoverished and backward Meredith McCarroll s Unwhite analyzes the fraught location of Appalachians within the southern and American imaginaries building on studies of race in literary and cinematic characterizations of the American South Not only do we know what rednecks and white trash are McCarroll argues we rely on the continued use of such categories in fashioning our broader sense of self and other Further we continue to depend upon the existence of the region of Appalachia as a cultural construct As a consequence Appalachia has long been represented in the collective cultural history as the lowest the poorest the most ignorant and the most laughable community McCarroll complicates this understanding by asserting that white privilege remains intact while Appalachia is othered through reliance on recognizable nonwhite cinematic stereotypes Unwhite demonstrates how typical characterizations of Appalachian people serve as foils to set off and define the whiteness of the non Appalachian southerners In this dynamic Appalachian characters become the racial other Analyzing the representation of the people of Appalachia in films such as Deliverance Cold Mountain Medium Cool Norma Rae Cape Fear The Killing Season and Winter s Bone through the critical lens of race and specifically whiteness McCarroll offers a reshaping of the understanding of the relationship between racial and regional identities Having It All Sarah Jane Butfield, 2022-09-14 Having it all but at what cost for a career nurse and devoted mother When one of my early mentors suggested that my nursing qualification as a Registered General Nurse would be my ticket to Having It All I could not envisage what that would mean for me As a nurse and a woman who intended to have a family I did not think too far ahead and any thoughts on how it would manifest itself in relation to my nursing career were limited to family friendly options However this phrase became embedded in my subconscious and would end up influencing my goals dreams and aspirations both personally and professionally For me having it all was not based on greed or a materialistic wish list instead it described the tight rope walk that was my life a finely balanced juggling act between my career and my family The truth was that I had survived a period in my life that physically and emotionally pushed me to the edge and I was literally saved by the deep seated love for my children Now as I looked forward there was a ray of light beckoning and telling me it was time to
