

Mark Band	Description	Likely Characteristics
22 - 25	The essay synthesises information from all relevant study areas to answer the question in full. There is some in-depth analysis and balanced debate of the issues with correct use of technical language and factual information throughout, demonstrating a clear understanding of the subject matter. A range of accurate practical examples predominantly taken from relevant scientific units supports the vast majority of points.	A well structured essay with continuous prose. Predominantly accurate use of spelling, punctuation and grammar. Correct use of terminology. Clear, concise and relevant throughout.
18 - 21	The essay synthesises information from most of the relevant study areas to address the key issues raised in the question. A good understanding is demonstrated through a good use of technical language, some detailed analysis and balanced debate of key points. Factual information and accurate examples, many taken from relevant scientific units, are used in support of points made.	A well structured essay with predominantly accurate use of spelling, punctuation and grammar. Correct use of terminology. Clear and concise but may occasionally make an irrelevant comment.
14 - 17	The answer synthesises information from a limited number of study areas in an attempt to address the key issues raised in the question. A sound understanding is demonstrated through the use of some technical language, factual information and relevant practical examples, some of which are taken from scientific units. Some analysis and debate is evident, although this may be lacking both in depth and balance.	An obvious attempt to structure the essay. Fundamentally sound use of terminology. Generally clear and concise with limited inaccuracies. Satisfactory spelling, punctuation and grammar.
10 - 13	An essay that addresses a limited number of key issues but lacks the depth of synoptic rigour required. There is little evidence of analysis and technical language, although some basic understanding of the subject area is demonstrated. Relevant points may be supported by examples but only partially developed.	A basic structure is evident. Some incorrect use of terminology. There may be errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar. A number of inaccuracies.
7 - 9	An essay that fails to address many parts of the question. There is little evidence of synoptic analysis with sweeping statements that may contain some relevant information but generally remain unsupported by evidence or accurate examples and suggest limited understanding. Irrelevant points and repetition may be used to pad out the answer.	A poorly structured essay in which there may be errors in spelling, punctuation and grammar. Incorrect use of terminology. A significant proportion of material is irrelevant.
0 - 6	An essay that mostly fails to address the question and contains many inaccuracies and irrelevancies. Very little evidence of synoptic analysis with statements that demonstrate a lack of understanding.	A poorly structured essay. Incorrect spelling, punctuation and grammar. Incorrect use of terminology. Many inaccuracies.
