1910 was probably the most eclectic figure in late nineteenth century Italian culture. A prolific writer, Mantegazza can be seen as a forerunner of what has come to be known as cultural studies on account of his interdisciplinary approach, his passionate blend of scientific and literary elements in his writings, and his ability to transcend the boundaries between high and low culture. Though extremely popular during his lifetime both in Italy and abroad, Mantegazza's works have not been made available in a significant English language compilation. This volume is a representative overview of Mantegazza's key works, many of them translated into English for the first time. In addition to the unabridged Physiology of Love (1873), a veritable best seller at the time of its initial publication, this compilation features selections from Mantegazza's writings on medicine, his travelogues, his epistolary novel One Day in Madeira (1868), and his treatise on materialistic aesthetics Replete, with an extensive and informative introduction by the editor. The Physiology of Love and Other Writings also excerpt Mantegazza's works of science fiction, memoir, and social and cultural criticism. As an anthology of the works of Paolo Mantegazza, a writer of diverse topical orientations, this volume is also an account of the circulation of ideas and cross fertilization of disciplines that defined a crucial period of Italian and European cultural life.

A Different Kind of Love
 Edna Louise McQueen Plummer, 2018-05-17
 A Different Kind of Love By Edna Louise McQueen Plummer
 Margaret was a chic, tall, green-eyed beauty with curly red hair. She grew up in a large, close-knit family. She was closest to her youngest sister, Betty Jean. They were more than sisters; they were like best friends. Betty Jean confided in her and kept no secrets. She'd tell Margaret her troubles and triumphs before she'd tell anyone. Margaret lived in a small, quiet town, Hollis Hill, which was a warm and peaceful place. She was a head buyer for McQueen's, a large department store chain, and had impeccable taste and fashion sense. She met Sherry on a business trip to the big city. Margaret preferred the comfort of her small town. She stopped off at a small bar for a drink where she met Sherry. They hit it off right away. Sherry was a pretty brunette. She had a no-nonsense personality and a temper to match. She had a complicated history full of foster homes and sexual abuse, but Margaret fell head over heels. Betty Jean and Sherry didn't like each other. They only tolerated each other because of Margaret. As Sherry and Margaret's relationship deepened, Betty Jean and Sherry's dislike for each other grew deeper. Sherry had started receiving crank calls and roses, which became a nuisance. Sherry and Margaret met the handsome Storm Winters at a launch party. He was from Tennessee. He was a business tycoon and a jetsetter. He took an instant liking to Margaret as she did to him. Margaret didn't warm up to people right away. However, he was different. They became good friends. After that, their lives would never be the same.
