The Spirit of Leadership Reuel Khoza, 2024-05-21 In 2023 Reuel Khoza unsealed a letter to the future which he had written in 1999 when he was chair of Eskom at the time recognised as the best power utility in the world It was an optimistic letter expressing hopes that have since been dashed by corruption and maladministration by a failure of ethical leadership Khoza has written about leadership before considering the importance of intelligence emotional intelligence and social awareness Now he broadens his focus to explore the role of spirituality a faith quotient in transformational leadership The Spirit of Leadership is about faith in humanity and above all faith in God It is about being an African and a Christian and a strong believer in the virtues of ubuntu Africa's philosophy of humanness It is about ancestral wisdom and modern leadership It is about progress through ethical behaviour and good governance in business Finally it is about innovations of the spirit that are needed to save South Africa and indeed the world from a spiral of despair This is a vital and timely book for a country that needs to rediscover its moral compass

Black Power in South Africa Gail M. Gerhart, 1978 This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC of the late 1940s to the South African Student Organization SASO and the Black Consciousness Movement of the 1970s Perspective Clarifies some of the main issues that have divided the black leadership and rescues the work of some pioneering nationalist theorists It's an absorbing piece of history New York Times Informative and well researched She ably explores the nuances of the two main movements until 1960 and explains why blacks were so receptive to black consciousness in the late Sixties New York Review

South African Digest, 1964 Resources in Education, 1984

Within the Realm of Possibility Mokubung O. Nkomo,Derrick Swartz,Botshabelo Maja,2006 Past present and future is what this book documents and reveals about higher education in South Africa Because place and space have contextual effects the story of university education is told through the experiences of two schools the University of Fort Hare and the University of the North they are both similar and different

The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust,2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about Palavers of African Literature Toyin Falola, Barbara Harlow, 2002 White on Black in South Africa Michael Wade, 2016-07-27 The English speaking whites of South Africa participate in the larger culture of the English speaking world while rejecting its unspoken consensual positions on many basic issues This study analyses texts of different kinds produced by the group to examine the way these deviant English speakers see themselves and particularly how this self image is influenced by the presence of the blacks who constitute a crucial part of their perceptual field Economically powerful but politically marginal for many years the English speaking whites have always been mediators of their community's experience to the world culture of the English language the study shows how the act of mediation operates in more than one direction producing a literary tradition that is essentially and perhaps surprisingly dissident Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1977 Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1966 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 African Writers and Their Readers Bernth Lindfors, 2002 Like its companion volume African Writers and Their Readers is a magnificent and monumental tribute to Bernth Lindfors the scholar who transformed African literary studies in North America The quality of scholarship that has gone into these essays and their range of cultural and historical reference is perhaps one of the most vocal testaments to the significance of the Lindfors factor in African literary scholarship Simon Gikandi Professor of English Language and Literature at the University of Michigan Buthelezi Ben Temkin, 2013-10-31 Ben Temkin Buthelezi's biographer had the full co operation of Chief Buthelezi in the writing of this book There were interviews and discussions in KwaZulu and in Johannesburg in offices at the airport in hotels in private homes and even while they travelled between centres in KwaZulu Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes The Tongue Is

Fire Harold Scheub, 1996-10-01 In the years between the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 and the Soweto Uprising of 1976 a period that was both the height of the apartheid system in South Africa and in retrospect the beginning of its end Harold Scheub went to Africa to collect stories With tape recorder and camera in hand Scheub registered the testaments of Swati Xhosa Ndebele and Zulu storytellers farming people who lived in the remote reaches of rural South Africa While young people fought in the streets of Soweto and South African writers made the world aware of apartheid's evils the rural storytellers resisted apartheid in their own way using myth and metaphor to preserve their traditions and confront their oppressors For more than 20 years Scheub kept the promise he made to the storytellers to publish his translations of their stories only when freedom came to South Africa The Tongue Is Fire presents these voices of South African oral tradition the historians the poets the epic performers the myth makers documenting their enduring faith in the power of the word to sustain tradition in the face of determined efforts to distort or eliminate it These texts are a tribute to the storytellers who have always in periods of crisis exercised their art to inspire their own people United States-South African Relations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa, 1966 Soweto Inside Out Adam Roberts, 2012-10-02 This is a book about Soweto from inside and out It is an effort to mark a century since the first forced removals of black Africans from central Johannesburg to the banks of the Klipspruit River It is also in recognition of the limited books available on a world famous city A wide variety of writers have contributed Sowetan experts with views from inside the township as well as interested outsiders who are peering in Contributors include writers from publications as varied as Drum Sowetan Mail Guardian Time magazine The Economist The Independent and New York Times
