Army ,1962 Army, Navy, Air Force Journal & Register ,1944 Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, South Africa and United Nations Peacekeeping Offensive Operations Garcia, Antonio,2018-08-16 The creation of the Force Intervention Brigade FIB as the sharp tactical edge of the United Nations Stabilisation Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo MONUSCO tasked with the neutralising of armed groups was a watershed moment in the history of modern peace missions What was more significant was that sub Saharan national leaders were instrumental in the creation of the FIB South Africa Tanzania and Malawi but lacked the resources to deploy such a force and consequently the brigade was deployed under the banner of the UN With the legacy of an African Renaissance and its role in the conception of the FIB South Africa remains a critical player in international peace and security in sub Saharan Africa and therefore holds a key strategic role in achieving the FIB s objectives This comes at a critical time where blue helmets are increasingly exposed to complex and challenging security contexts The aim of this work is to provide a conceptual model for South African military future operations and UN offensive peacekeeping operations In this undertaking a layer of military and Clausewitzian theory is added to offensive peacekeeping operations Furthermore there are sections on operational constructs capstone and operating concepts doctrine and structural elements as well a section on mine action This book contributes towards an understanding of the nature of modern strategy through the lens of UN offensive peacekeeping operations and provides insights into operational challenges , The Army Lawyer ,1999

Kommando ,1969 Fossil Energy Update ,1978 Captured at Arnheim Peter Green,2022-07-20 For the British 1st Airborne Division Operation Market Garden in September 1944 was a disaster The Division was eliminated as a fighting force with around a half of its men were captured The Germans were faced with dealing with 6 000 prisoners in a fortnight many of them seriously wounded Somehow the men were processed and despatched to camps around Germany and German occupied eastern Europe Here the men experienced the reality of the collapsing regime little food and shrinking frontiers Once liberated in 1945 returning former prisoners were required to complete liberation questionnaires Some refused Others returned before Operation Endor to handle released men and their repatriation to Britain was in place Around a third did However the questionnaires that do exist give an picture of every day experience for the 2 357 of these elite troops time in captivity from capture to release They show that German procedures still operating but that men were often treated inhumanely when moved to camps by closed box cars and when camps were evacuated Although their interrogators were interested in Allied aircraft and airfields their interrogators were also concerned the effect of the new miracle weapons and with politics how Germany would be treated after an Allied victory Nevertheless the airborne men s morale remained high carrying out sabotage at artificial oil plants railway repairs factories and mines Some overcame their guards when being evacuated at the end of the War in some cases joining the Resistance They record help received from Dutch French and German civilians

Post-conflict Reconstruction and Development in Africa Theo Neethling, Heidi Hudson, 2013-10-01 Some of the bloodiest conflicts occur on the African continent An Afrocentric perspective is therefore a suitable starting point for research into the possible strategies for post conflict peacebuilding The authors of this book consider the problems around the concept of post conflict and the blurring of military and civilian roles analysing the UN roles in the DRC and Sierra Leone as well as the African Union Mission in Burundi The main context of the book however is the South African Army s strategy for PCR in Africa which was developed with the African Union s 2006 Post Conflict Reconstruction and Development Needs Assessment Guide in mind This book emanates from this plan It therefore also explores South Africa s policy imperatives to integrate development projects and peace missions involving the military as well as civilian organisations While this book is not intended as an instruction manual it hopes to ignite an understanding of the particular processes required to develop a sustainable and cohesive post conflict peacebuilding strategy within the African environment
