Narrative

On Thursday July 16, 2009, Henry Gates, Jr. [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] Ware Street, Cambridge, MA) was placed under arrest at [REDACTED] Ware Street, after being observed exhibiting loud and tumultuous behavior, in a public place, directed at a uniformed police officer who was present investigating a report of a crime in progress. These actions on the behalf of Gates served no legitimate purpose and caused citizens passing by this location to stop and take notice while appearing surprised and alarmed.

On the above time and date, I was on uniformed duty in an unmarked police cruiser assigned to the Administration Section, working from 7:00 AM-3:30 PM. At approximately 12:44 PM, I was operating my cruiser on Harvard Street near Ware Street. At that time, I overheard an ECC broadcast for a possible break in progress at [REDACTED] Ware Street. Due to my proximity, I responded.

When I arrived at [REDACTED] Ware Street I radioed ECC and asked that they have the caller meet me at the front door to this residence. I was told that the caller was already outside. As I was getting this information, I climbed the porch stairs toward the front door. As I reached the door, a female voice called out to me. I turned and looked in the direction of the voice and observed a white female, later identified as Lucia Whalen. Whalen, who was standing on the sidewalk in front of the residence, held a wireless telephone in her hand and told me that it was she who called. She went on to tell me that she observed what appeared to be two black males with backpacks on the porch of [REDACTED] Ware Street. She told me that her suspicions were aroused when she observed one of the men wedging his shoulder into the door as if he was trying to force entry. Since I was the only police officer on location and had my back to the front door as I spoke with her, I asked that she wait for other responding officers while I investigated further.

Adler,2019-08-02 New Orleans in the 1920s and 1930s was a deadly place In 1925 the city s homicide rate was six times that of New York City and twelve times that of Boston Jeffrey S Adler has explored every homicide recorded in New Orleans between 1925 and 1940 over two thousand in all scouring police and autopsy reports old interviews and crumbling newspapers More than simply quantifying these cases Adler places them in larger contexts legal political cultural and demographic and emerges with a tale of racism urban violence and vicious policing that has startling relevance for today Murder in New Orleans shows that whites were convicted of homicide at far higher rates than blacks leading up to the mid 1920s But by the end of the following decade this pattern had reversed completely despite an overall drop in municipal crime rates The injustice of this sharp rise in arrests was compounded by increasingly brutal treatment of black subjects by the New Orleans police department Adler explores other counterintuitive trends in violence particularly how murder soared during the flush times of the Roaring Twenties how it plummeted during the Great Depression and how the vicious response to African American crime occurred even as such violence plunged in frequency revealing that the city s cycle of racial policing and punishment was connected less to actual patterns of wrongdoing than to the national enshrinement of Jim Crow Rather than some hyperviolent outlier this Louisiana city was a harbinger of the endemic racism at the center of today s criminal justice state Murder in New Orleans lays bare how decades old crimes and the racially motivated cruelty of the official response have baleful resonance in the age of Black Lives Matter Federal Register ,1995-10 State Legislative Responses to Violent Juvenile Crime Patricia M. that is part murder case part corruption expos and part Louisiana noir New York magazine Between 2005 and 2009 the bodies of eight women were discovered in Jennings Louisiana a bayou town of 10 000 in the Jefferson Davis parish The women came to be known as the Jeff Davis 8 and local law enforcement officials were quick to pursue a serial killer theory stirring a wave of panic across Jennings class divided neighborhoods The Jeff Davis 8 had been among society's most vulnerable impoverished abused and mired with mental illness They engaged in sex work as a means of survival And their underworld activity frequently occurred at a decrepit motel called the Boudreaux Inn As the cases went unsolved the community began to look inward Rumors of police corruption and evidence tampering of collusion between street and shield cast the serial killer theory into doubt But what was really going on in the humid rooms of the Boudreaux Inn Why were crimes going unsolved and police officers being indicted What had the eight women known And could anything be done to stop the bloodshed Mixing muckraking research and immersive journalism over the course of a five year investigation Ethan Brown reviewed thousands of pages of previously unseen homicide files to posit what happened during each woman's final hours delivering a true crime tale that is mesmerizing Rolling Stone and explosive Huffington Post Brown is a man on a mission he gives the victims more respectful attention than they probably got in real life The New York Times A must read for true crime fans Publishers Weekly starred review with a new afterword Murder in the Bayou is the story of an American town buckling under the dark forces of poverty race and class division and a lightning rod for justice for the daughters it lost
