Case Number: 010147858

Date: 13 August 2013

Reporting Officer: Deputy Jones

Prepared By: CPL Stevens

Incident Type: Robbery

Address of Occurrence: 557 Maple Street, Manchester, NH 03104

Witnesses:

Alan Perez: Store owner. Male, 43, Latino

Michael Tully: Employee. Male, 21, African American

Andrea Chao: Customer. Female, 27, Asian American

Evidence:

Closed-circuit surveillance footage

Fingerprints (taken from counter)

Footprint (size 10 Nike Air, found in drying paint)

Weapon/Objects Used: Pistol/Firearm

On August 13, 2013, at approximately 17:38, two unidentified males entered a 7-Eleven convenience store and stole $232 from the register at gunpoint. The store's security camera recorded the incident as one man pointed a handgun at store owner Alan Perez while the other man gestured threateningly while demanding that Perez give him the money from the register. "Two guys came in with masks and a gun," Perez said in his witness statement, "and one started yelling at us to give him the money." Perez was running the store with the help of Michael Tully, his employee. Tully described the suspects as middle-aged, white, both wearing leather jackets, jeans, and ski masks. The only customer in the store was Andrea Chao, who heard the robbery taking place but did not see it as she was in the store restroom at the time.

Police Style Report Writing:

Report Writing, 1982 Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Larry S. Miller, John T.

Whitehead, 2014-10-13 The criminal justice process is dependent on accurate documentation Criminal justice professionals can spend 50-75% of their time writing administrative and research reports Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals Fifth Edition provides practical guidance with specific writing samples and guidelines for providing strong reports Much of the legal process depends on careful documentation and the crucial information that lies within but most law enforcement security corrections and probation and parole officers have not had adequate training in how to provide well written accurate brief and complete reports Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professionals covers everything officers need to learn from basic English grammar to the difficult but often ignored problem of creating documentation that will hold up in court This new edition is updated to include timely information including extensive coverage of digital reporting updates on legal issues and privacy rights and expanded coverage of forensics and scientific reporting The Suspect's Statement Martha

Komter, 2019-04-25 Explores how suspect statements are elicited in police interrogations written down and transformed into a document that is cited in court The SAGE Guide to Writing in Policing Jennifer M. Allen, Steven

Houglund, 2019-12-02 The SAGE Guide to Writing in Policing Report Writing Essentials equips students with transferable writing skills that can be applied across the field of policing both academically and professionally Authors Steven Houglund and Jennifer M Allen interweave professional and applied writing academic writing and information literacy with the result being a stronger more confident report writer Students are also exposed to a number of best practices for various elements of report writing such as the face page incident reports supplemental reports investigative reports and traffic reports as well as search warrants and affidavits Capturing Talk: The Institutional Practices Surrounding the Transcription of Spoken

Language Martha Komter, Helen Fraser, Emma Richardson, Felicity Deamer, Kate Haworth, Debbie Loakes, 2024-05-22 Across a range of institutional settings practitioners and professionals are eliciting and capturing spoken talk from clients Sarangi 1998 transcribing that talk and later repurposing the transcripts in place of the original interaction This Research Topic seeks both to shed light on this often overlooked institutional process and to encourage further linguistic input into this area of professional practice Transcription is almost always an institutional practice Park Bucholtz 2009 providing a written record of spoken interaction to be used by another party at a later date in another setting or context There are a number of underappreciated features and consequences of this transformational process which we hope this Research Topic will expose and examine Report Writing for Crime Scene Investigators Laura Pazarena, Michael Kessler, Amy

Watroba, 2022-06-29 Report Writing for Crime Scene Investigators provides students with the tools to write effective crime scene reports Students looking to break into the field of crime scene investigations often take courses in report writing but the textbooks available are commonly geared toward general law enforcement and first responders However none of the books on the market focus on the craft of effective informative writing with graphic crime scene specific considerations in mind While falling under law enforcement s purview crime scene investigations fall within the forensic science field and as such the reporting required is more technical and often more scientific in nature than the average police report Due to the lack of published resources and guidance in this critical area there is no standard that currently exists for vital function within crime scene and investigative circles and often the subject is given short shrift This creates wide discrepancies among what students are being taught This book is the first of its kind to provide students and those professionals and agencies in need of a blueprint with a resource to teach them the various types of reports and how to refer to scenarios and specific types of evidence to ensure that the report holds up under the process of an investigation and for use within the courts Key features Outlines the key distinctions between police style reports and crime scene style reports and writing Explains how to clearly and accurately provide an accounting and description of a variety of evidence recovered from a scene Details how to best organize the report in a logical manner and sequence including the various components of the crime scene report Presents an explanation of the information that should be included in the report and the rationale behind its importance for testimonial purposes Report Writing for Crime Scene Investigators provides to the reader the fundamentals of effective report writing for the active field Crime Scene Investigator Coverage includes the necessary steps to thoroughly document scenes and evidence from the time the CSI receives the call until the time the CSI testifies in court In addition to the student market the book will be a welcome resource for professional crime scene investigators attorneys and as a reference and standard for professional training programs
