Welfare, Inequality and Social Citizenship Daniel Edmiston, 2020-02-12 Exploring the lived realities of both poverty and prosperity in the UK this book examines the material and symbolic significance of welfare austerity and its implications for social citizenship and inequality The book offers a rare and vivid insight into the everyday lives attitudes and behaviours of the rich as well as the poor demonstrating how those marginalised and validated by the existing welfare system make sense of the prevailing socio political settlement and their own position within it Through the testimonies of both affluent and deprived citizens the book problematises dominant policy thinking surrounding the functions and limits of welfare examining the civic attitudes and engagements of the rich and the poor to demonstrate how welfare austerity and rising structural inequalities secure and maintain institutional legitimacy The book offers a timely contribution to academic and policy debates pertaining to citizenship welfare reform and inequality The Neoliberal State, Recognition and Indigenous Rights Deirdre Howard-Wagner, Maria Bargh, Isabel Altamirano-Jiménez, 2018-07-25 The impact of neoliberal governance on indigenous peoples in liberal settler states may be both enabling and constraining This book is distinctive in drawing comparisons between three such states Australia Canada and New Zealand In a series of empirically grounded interpretive micro studies it draws out a shared policy coherence but also exposes idiosyncrasies in the operational dynamics of neoliberal governance

both within each state and between them Read together as a collection these studies broaden the debate about and the analysis of contemporary government policy The individual studies reveal the forms of actually existing neoliberalism that are variegated by historical geographical and legal contexts and complex state arrangements At the same time they present examples of a more nuanced agential bottom up indigenous governmentality Focusing on intense and complex matters of social policy rather than on resource development and land rights they demonstrate how indigenous actors engage in trying to govern various fields of activity by acting on the conduct and contexts of everyday neoliberal life and also on the conduct of state and corporate actors

The Politics of Wellbeing Ian Bache,Karen Scott,2018-07-04 This volume is the first collection in the field of wellbeing studies that places politics centre stage Through a combination of intellectual inquiry empirically grounded research and investigation across different settings this book aims to provide fresh insights and develop new lenses through which to understand the rise and significance of the wellbeing agenda Divided into three parts it considers how to define wellbeing for public policy the prospects for wellbeing as a force for political change and the link between policy agendas and the everyday lives of people The book explores the key political issues of power democracy and the legitimacy of wellbeing evidence in a range of settings international national and subnational substate The volume will appeal to wellbeing and politics scholars as well as students and general readers with an interest in these new political agendas

Compulsory Income Management in Australia and New Zealand Greg Marston,Louise Humpage,Michelle Peterie,Philip Mendes,Shelley Bielefeld,Zoe Staines,2022-06-16 More than a decade on from their conception this book reflects on the consequences of income management policies in Australia and New Zealand Drawing on a three year study it explores the lived experience of those for whom core welfare benefits and services are dependent on government conceptions of responsible behaviour It analyses whether officially claimed positive intentions and benefits of the schemes are outweighed by negative impacts that deepen the poverty and stigma of marginalised and disadvantaged groups This novel study considers the future of this form of welfare conditionality and addresses wider questions of fairness and social justice

Organizing Food, Faith and Freedom Ozan Nadir Alakavuklar,2024-05-30 Consumerism unsustainable growth waste and inequalities continue to ail societies across the globe but creative collectives have been tackling these issues at a grassroots level Based on an autoethnographic study about a free food store in Aotearoa New Zealand this book presents a first hand account of how a community is organized around surplus food to deal with food poverty while also helping the reader to see through the complexity that brings the free food store to life Examining how alternative economies and relations emerge from these community solutions the author shows it is possible to think act and organize differently within and beyond capitalist dynamics

Dealing with Welfare Conditionality Peter Dwyer,2019-02-27 This edited collection considers how conditional welfare policies and services are implemented and experienced by a diverse range of welfare service users across a range of UK policy domains including social security homelessness migration and criminal justice The book showcases the insights and findings of a series of distinct independent studies undertaken by early career researchers associated with the ESRC funded Welfare Conditionality project Each chapter presents a new empirical analysis of data generated in fieldwork conducted with practitioners charged with interpreting and delivering policy and welfare service users who are at the sharp end of welfare services shaped by behavioural conditionality

Applied and Clinical Sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand Zarine L. Rocha, Kathy L. Davidson, 2023-12-19 This is the first volume to explore clinical and applied sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand while also providing unique insights into the practice of sociology internationally Drawing out the intersections between sociological research public sociology and applied sociology the chapters in this volume enrich the rapidly growing field of international clinical sociology Aotearoa New Zealand presents an important case study in the development and practice of sociology with a vibrant social scientific community and a significant diversity of scholars and practitioners local research and practice highlight the country's innovative and often unusual approaches to addressing social problems This volume brings together a diversity of scholars and practitioners from the country's top sociologists to early career researchers and provides a comprehensive and valuable exploration of sociology and its many practical applications in this unique context It covers a wide range of key topics in the field from the challenges of practicing a public sociology in Aotearoa New Zealand to the role of applied and clinical sociologists in government and consultancies Contemporary social issues are explored as case studies including practising sociological psychotherapy indigenous applications of sociology and M ori language learning and applying sociology within healthcare This is a key addition to applied and clinical sociology literature

Democracy Under Siege? Timothy Hellwig, Yesola Kweon, Jack Vowles, 2020 The consequences of the Global Financial Crisis GFC and Great Recession of 2008 2010 continue to be debated among economists journalists and policymakers This book examines how these economic shocks which originated largely outside of nations reshaped politics within them

Research Handbook on Curriculum and Education Elizabeth Rata, 2024-04-12 This incisive Handbook brings together a wealth of innovative research from international curriculum and education experts to ask the question what knowledge should be taught in school how should it be taught and for what purpose

A Team of Five Million? Jennifer Curtin, Lara Greaves, Jack Vowles, 2024-06-25 New Zealand was one of a handful of countries that held a national election in the midst of the Covid 19 pandemic Its policy response stood out as remarkably successful Indeed several years on from the onset of the crisis in 2023 New Zealand still retained a record of no excess deaths While New Zealanders were voting on October 17 2020 their country had only recorded 25 confirmed deaths out of a population of five million Then support for the government's crisis management was at its height Labour the leading party in the incumbent coalition government secured a historic election victory Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern had taken up the metaphor of the New Zealand people as a team of five million facing the Covid 19 threat together This book seeks to explain the success of the government's strategy through an analysis of the election campaign and outcome The authors also address the limits of this approach and the extent to which some voters felt alienated rather than connected with the team The election outcome was a big short term swing of the electoral pendulum It did not generate a reset of the party system Three years on as the 2023 election loomed into sight the party system looked much as it did prior to the pandemic and Labour's success in 2020 was about to be dramatically reversed

The Reformation of Welfare Tom Boland,Ray Griffin,2022-12-13 Inspired by ideas from economic theology this provocative book uncovers deep rooted religious concepts and shows how they continue to influence contemporary views of work and unemployment

Sociologies of New Zealand Charles Crothers,2018-04-13 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of the various sociologies of New Zealand from the late 19th century to the present day Opening with previously undocumented insights into the history of proto sociology in New Zealand the book then explores the parallel stories of the discipline both as a mainstream subject in Sociology departments and as a more diffuse sociology within other university units The rise and fall of departments specialties and research networks is plotted and the ways in which external and internal factors have shaped these is explained Different generations of sociologists including many immigrants are each shown to have left their unique mark on New Zealand sociology The author demonstrates that the rising interest in topics specific to New Zealand has been accompanied by increasing capacities to contribute to world sociology This book will have inter disciplinary appeal across the social sciences and provides a valuable study of the development of sociology in a semi peripheral country

The Indian Farmers' Protest of 2020-2021 Christine Moliner,David Singh,2024-08-21 The Kisan Andolan or the Indian farmers protest of 2020 2021 is one of the longest and biggest and victorious social movements in the history of independent India This book adopts a multidisciplinary approach to contextualise the movement in the long run It engages with the historical social and religious roots of the Andolan examining what makes it so unique and transformative for Indian polity It explores the discontinuities with previous resistance and contestation movements in India and globally and debates the role so far of regional religious and class caste gender identities Through interviews the volume also gives a specific voice and platform to grassroots activists and farmers from the movement Part of the Social Movements and Transformative Dissent series the book will appeal to scholars activists and a wider audience interested in social movements and dissent politics in India and the Global South It will also be of interest to students of economics political science anthropology sociology government agrarian studies Sikh and Punjab studies politics international relations and diaspora studies

State of Threat Wil Hoverd,Deidre Ann McDonald,2023-11-16 Increasing US China tensions Russia's invasion of Ukraine disruptions to supply chains and maritime trade right wing extremism gangs and the drug trade The international and domestic security environment is dynamic and fraught In State of Threat local and international academics and sector experts discuss the issues facing New Zealand across defence diplomacy intelligence policy trade and border management This timely and up to date analysis of New Zealand's most important security issues is a must read for policy analysts those working in risk management and industry leaders across all sectors of the economy

The Feasibility of Citizen's Income Malcolm Torry, 2016-06-07 This book is the first full length treatment of the desirability and feasibility of implementing a citizen's income also known as a basic income It tests for two different kinds of financial feasibility as well as for psychological behavioral administrative and political viability and then assesses how a citizen's income might find its way through the policy process from proposal to implementation Drawing on a wide variety of sources of evidence from around the world this new book from the director of the Citizen's Income Trust UK provides an essential foundation for policy and implementation debates Governments think tanks economists and public servants will find this thorough encompassing book indispensable to their consideration of the economic and social advantages and practicalities of a basic income

Social Suffering in the Neoliberal Age Karen Soldatic, Louise St Guillaume, 2022-04-27 This book provides a rich synthesis of research and theory of nascent and emergent critically engaged work examining changing welfare structures regimes and technologies and the social suffering that is generated in everyday lives By rigorously examining social security restructuring with the turn to austerity governance and its daily practices of managing regulating and subordinating individuals peoples and communities this collection delineates the machinery of state power and logics designed to manage contain and control the lives of some of the most poorest and marginalised citizens who are reliant on social welfare income payments A core strength of the book is first its unpacking of austerity governance across diverse communities and second the elevation of community resistance and mobilisation against the very measures of austerity Combined the work maps out the logics of state power and everyday practices of embedded contestation and confrontation Using the case study of Australia to discuss sociolegal recategorisations automation of welfare governance technologies of policy design and delivery conditionality and systems of penalisation this book will be of interest to all scholars and students of sociology critical theory social policy social work and disability studies Indigenous studies and settler colonialism

Why We Need a Citizen's Basic Income Malcolm Torry, 2018-05-09 In the five years since Money for Everyone was published the idea of a Citizen's Basic Income has rocketed in interest to an idea whose time has come In moving the debate on from the desirability of a basic income this fully updated and revised edition now includes comprehensive discussions on feasibility and implementation Using the consultation undertaken by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales as a basis Torry examines a number of implementation methods for Citizen's Basic Income and considers the cost implications Including real life examples from the UK and data from case studies and pilots in Alaska Namibia India Iran and elsewhere this is the essential research based introduction to the Citizen's Basic Income

Basic Income in Australia and New Zealand J. Mays, G. Marston, J. Tomlinson, 2016-04-08 Basic income is an innovative powerful egalitarian response to widening global inequalities and poverty experiences in society one that runs counter to the neoliberal transformations of modern welfare states social security and labor market programs This book is the first collective volume of its kind to ask whether a basic income offers a viable solution to the income support systems in Australia and New Zealand Though often neglected in discussions of basic income both countries are advanced liberal democracies dominated by neoliberal transformations of the welfare state and therefore have great potential to advance debates on the topic The contributors essays and case studies explore the historical basis on which a basic income program might stand in these two countries the ideological nuances and complexities of implementing such a policy and ideas for future development that might allow the program to be put into practice regionally and applied internationally
