British and American Representations of 9/11 Oana-Celia Gheorghiu, 2018-04-19 This book argues that twenty-first century neorealist fiction is inspired by political and journalistic discourses and along with them constitutes one of the many representations of the attacks on September 11 and their outcomes. Adopting a neorealist stance, this book is placed at the intersection of realism and fiction with often reference to what is perceived as objective writing media and political texts not at all so divorced from the practice of literary writings on the event that shook the world on September 11, 2001.

Politics in America Chris Rice, 2010-03 The Declaration of Independence is a great document. In it are great words to live by. It was written by great people living in very difficult times. 235 odd years later we are still living in very difficult times. However, I do not believe that this country is being run by great people any longer. I do believe the founding fathers of this country had great insight and perhaps could even foresee some of today's problems. The Declaration of Independence states that at times it is proper to dissolve a broken government and start over. I believe that time has come.
