By engaging adolescents in narrative literary or creative nonfiction, they can cultivate a greater understanding of themselves, the world around them and what it means to feel empathy for others. This book will guide you to first structure a reading unit around a narrative nonfiction text and then develop lessons and activities for students to craft their own personal essays. Topics include: Engaging your students in the reading of a nonfiction narrative with collaborative chapter notes, empathy check-ins and a mini research paper to deepen students' understanding. Helping your students identify meaningful life events, recount their experiences creatively and construct effective opening and closing lines for their personal essays. The strategies in this book are supplemented by examples of student work and snapshots from the author's own classroom.
