Amanda Holmes, 2007 Using concepts from urban and cultural studies City Fictions examines the representation of the city in the works of five important late twentieth century Spanish American authors Octavio Paz Julio Cortazar Christina Peri Rossi Diamela Eltit and Carlos Monsivais While each of these authors is influenced at least partially by a specific Spanish American city be it Mexico City Buenos Aires Montevideo or Santiago the element that brings them together is the way in which the city is fictionalized in their work they all equate both language and the body with urban space In these metaphors language breaks down and the body disintegrates creating a disturbing picture of violent decline The poetry of Paz associates the urban surroundings with dissolving sentences and desensitized fingertips for Cortazar characters walking through cities are seen as both creating and unraveling written texts Transmedia Frictions Marsha Kinder, Tara McPherson, 2021-03-16 Editors Marsha Kinder and Tara McPherson present an authoritative collection of essays on the continuing debates over medium specificity and the politics of the digital arts Comparing the term transmedia with transnational they show that the movement beyond specific media or nations does not invalidate those entities but makes us look more closely at the cultural specificity of each combination In two parts the book stages debates across essays creating dialogues that give different narrative accounts of what is historically and ideologically at stake in medium specificity and digital politics Each part includes a substantive introduction by one of the editors Part 1 examines precursors contemporary theorists and artists who are protagonists in this discursive drama focusing on how the transmedia frictions and continuities between old and new forms can be read most productively N Katherine Hayles and Lev Manovich redefine medium specificity Edward Branigan and Yuri Tsivian explore nondigital precursors Steve Anderson and Stephen Mamber assess contemporary archival histories and Grahame Weinbren and Caroline Bassett defend the open ended mobility of newly emergent media In part 2 trios of essays address various ideologies of the digital John Hess and Patricia R Zimmerman Herman Gray and David Wade Crane redraw contours of race space and the margins Eric Gordon Cristina Venegas and John T Caldwell unearth database cities portable homelands and virtual fieldwork and Mark B N Hansen Holly Willis and Rafael Lozano Hemmer and Guillermo Gomez Pe a examine interactive bodies transformed by shock gender and color An invaluable reference work in the field of visual media studies Transmedia Frictions provides sound historical perspective on the social and political aspects of the interactive digital arts demonstrating that they are never neutral or innocent
