With the "Die-Hards" in Siberia (WWI Centenary Series) John Ward, 2021-01-08 Originally written for the private use of my sons in case I did not return this narrative of events connected with the expedition to Siberia must of necessity lack many of the necessary elements which go to make a history I wrote of things as they occurred and recorded the reasons and motives which prompted the participants Many things have happened since which seem to show that we were not always right in our estimate of the forces at work around us Things are not always what they seem and this is probably more evident in the domain of Russian affairs than in any other It would have been comparatively easy to alter the text and square it with the results but that would have destroyed the main value of the story This book is part of the World War One Centenary series creating collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry fiction autobiography and analysis The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the world's bloodiest wars offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context Competition in the Health Services Market United States. New Perspectives on Postclassical Comedy Antonis Petrides, 2020-05-15 PIERIDES II Series Editors Philip Hardie and Stratis Kyriakidis The re emergence of Menander from the landfills of Egypt in the late 19th century and the subsequent discovery of the Bodmer Codex in the 1950s caused a sensation among scholars After a period in which the primary editing and reconstruction of the substantially preserved plays and fragments was the main line of criticism scholars were finally in a position to take a deep breath and look at Menander and New Comedy both Greek and Roman in wider contexts of interpretation and with fresh perspectives drawn from innovative work both in Classical and more modern studies This book aims to showcase these new approaches to postclassical comedy The individual contributions six in total approach New Comedy as theatrical performance but also as a dynamic player in the socio political discourses of the polis culture that gave birth to it The chapters highlight continuities as well as discontinuities with the cultural and literary past of Athens and the Greek world but mostly emphasise the progressiveness of New Comedy as a genre and its importance for the nascent culture of Hellenism and Rome thereafter Blume s introductory chapter tells the story of Menander s re emergence from the tenebrae in full detail The other five chapters are dual in nature expositional of a method but also practical examples of it They are arranged in a fashion which underlines the major theoretical underpinnings of New Comedy studies as they are being developed in the present Cultural Studies David Konstan and Susan Lape Intertextuality and Performance Antonis K Petrides and Rosanna Omitowaju and Reception in Rome Sophia Papaioannou Forest and Stream ,1894 Athenaeum ,1879 The New World ,1842 Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper John Albert Sleicher,1877 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1879 The Spectator ,1878 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Books in Print ,1977 Antiquarian Bookman ,1962 Ballou's Pictorial Maturin Murray Ballou,1856
