The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools, Third Edition Jo Nelson, 2013-08-20 Why don't kids learn Why can't students do higher order thinking Why do educators have endless staff meetings with few results How can parents and teachers communicate better The pressure upon educators to teach more to a wider range and number of students with decreasing resources and supports makes it urgent to find tools to answer such questions The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools demonstrates how the Focused Conversation method widely used in organizations and businesses can effectively be used in a K-12 educational setting Each section deals with interactions among students staff and parents and elaborates with over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful prevent and solve problems and make communications in meetings more effective Appendices showcase integrated curriculum examples where conversations have been used in unique combinations and list sample questions for each level of the conversation method With a bibliography and index included and patterned after its highly successful predecessor The Art of Focused Conversation 100 Ways to Access Group Wisdom in the Workplace this book will be welcomed by parents students educators and school administrators everywhere The Institute of Cultural Affairs has over 40 years experience in more than 32 nations A unique facilitation research and training organization ICA Canada has provided participatory skills to many thousands of people worldwide

Developing Standards-Based Report Cards Thomas R. Guskey, Jane M. Bailey, 2010 Providing a clear framework this volume helps school leaders align assessment and reporting practices with standards based education and develop more detailed reports of children's learning and progress The All-Day Kindergarten and Pre-K Curriculum Doris Fromberg, 2012-03-22 Grounded in theory and research The All Day Kindergarten and Pre-K Curriculum provides an activity based and classroom proven curriculum for educators to consider as they plan and interact with pre-K and kindergarten children Allowing young children the opportunities to become independent caring critical thinkers who feel comfortable asking questions and exploring possible solutions the Dynamic Themes Curriculum offers children the skills they need for responsible citizenship and academic progress This book describes a culturally sensitive pre-K and kindergarten curriculum in the context of literacy technology mathematics social studies science the arts and play and also discusses How to use the seven integrated conditions for learning to meet and exceed content learning standards How to organize for differentiated instruction and to integrate multiple forms of assessment How to teach literacy tools and skills in fresh ways How to work with families colleagues and community Building off of author Doris Fromberg's groundbreaking earlier work The All Day Kindergarten and Pre-K Curriculum presents a practical curriculum centering on how young children develop meanings This is a fantastic resource for pre and in service early childhood teachers administrators and scholars Reporting Pupil Progress Linda H. Kunder, Paul J. Porwoll, 1977 Recent Perspectives on Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Larry Prochner, 2012-01-01 Early childhood education is critical for preparing children for success in formal school settings and as such is a major concern throughout the world This volume brings together ground breaking research in this area to help practitioners students policy makers curriculum designers and intervention program developers understand the latest ideas and advances in the field Recent Perspectives of Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada centres on three key themes The first provides a survey of historical social policy economic and provincial regulations and policies related to early childhood education and care The second focuses on issues related to children s learning curriculum and teachers The final theme addresses recent developments in government involvement in early childhood education and care that are unique to Canada The contributors to this volume demonstrate the pressing need that exists to further public discussion on early childhood education to help policymakers shape better decisions for Canadian families

Developing Grading and Reporting Systems for Student Learning Thomas R. Guskey, Jane M. Bailey, 2024-07-24 Teachers parents students administrators and community members all agree that we need better grading and reporting systems Often these systems are inadequate because they are part of a tradition that can go unexamined and unquestioned for years Here is the first serious look at the issue written to provide all those involved especially teachers with a coherent and thoughtful framework Guskey and Bailey offer four pillars of successful grading and reporting systems Communication is the primary goal of grading and reporting Grading and reporting are integral parts of the instructional process Good reporting is based on good evidence Creating change in grading and reporting requires creating a multi faceted reporting system Written to help readers develop a deeper and more reflective understanding of the various aspects of the subject Thomas Guskey and Jane Bailey s work brings organization and clarity to a murky and disagreement filled topic Here is a practical and essential guide for teachers administrators or anyone concerned with understanding and implementing best practices in grading and reporting systems
