Behavior Disorders of Adolescence Robert J. McMahon, Ray DeV. Peters, 2012-12-06 This volume is one in a continuing series of publications sponsored by the Banff International Conferences on Behavioural Science The conferences have been held each spring since 1969 in Banff Alberta Canada They serve the purpose of bringing together outstanding behavioral scientists and professionals in a forum where they can present and dis cuss data related to emergent issues and topics Thus the International Conferences as a continuing event have served as an expressive early indicator of the developing nature and composition of behavioral science and scientific application Distance schedules and restricted audience preclude wide attendance at the conferences Consequently the publications have equal status with the conferences proper They are not however simply publications of the papers presented at the conference Presenters at the Banff Conferences are required to write a chapter specifically for the forthcoming book separate from their presentation and discussion at the conference itself The original conference had as its theme Ideal Mental Health Services The policy consciously adopted at that conference and followed ever since was to identify for the presentation of each year's theme those behavioral researchers who could best identify the state of the art In 1969 the conference faculty were Nathan Azrin Ogden Lindsley Gerald Paterson Todd Risley and Richard Stuart The conference topics for the first 19 years were as follows Ideal Mental Health Services 1969 I     The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins, Harvey B. Alvy, 2003 This book adds extremely relevant knowledge and skills for innovative reformers and for more traditional leaders alike It provides a solid set of interesting and shrewd suggestions that can be used immediately by practicing principals From the Foreword by Kent D Peterson Professor Department of Educational Administration University of Wisconsin Madison Despite the administrative leadership training that most principals receive in university courses their most useful learning doesn't occur until they are on the job And the new knowledge much of it the result of trial and error success and failure is gained in relative isolation simply because there is no one else at that responsibility level within the school Pam Robbins an educational consultant and Harvey B Alvy a practicing principal offer a well organized interactive manual for the role of principal They have worked with hundreds of schools educators and other organizations around the world collecting data that form the basis for The Principal's Companion This easy to read book combines the most helpful tried and true strategies with the most relevant leadership research and theory The authors discuss creative leadership and necessary skills the wide variety of roles played by principals how to create a learning community personal and professional issues and much more Quotes from practicing principals are included throughout the book and readers are encouraged to jot down their own reflections about each chapter theme The Principal's Companion is a rare opportunity to collaborate with other principals an excellent professional resource that will be referred to again and again Ideal for practicing and aspiring principals it is also highly useful as a text for administration courses     The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias, Joseph J. Ferrito, Dominic C. Moceris, 2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you'll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent
