Chong-Gossard,Frederik Juliaan Vervaeke,2010 Graeco Roman literary works historiography and even the reporting of rumours were couched as if they came in response to an insatiable desire by ordinary citizens to know everything about the lives of their leaders and to hold them to account at some level for their abuse of constitutional powers for personal ends Ancient writers were equally fascinated with how these same individuals used deceit as a powerful tool to disguise private and public reality The chapters in this collection examine the themes of despotism and deceit from both historical and literary perspectives over a range of historical periods including classical Athens the Hellenistic kingdoms late republican and early imperial Rome late antiquity and Byzantium Liberalism against Liberalism Javier Aranzadi,2006-04-18 The defence of the market and economic freedom have been the main objectives of the investigations by liberal thinkers such as Milton Friedman Gary Becker F Hayek and L Von Mises Bearing in mind that the first two economists are the maximum exponents of the Chicago School and the last two of the Austrian School it is often concluded that the theories of both schools are similar This book demonstrates that in reality there is no convergence or complementariness to be found between both schools of thought The anthropological categories contributed by Mises allow us to understand all human phenomena from the view of the man who acts In this view economics is part of a philosophical system whose core is the creative capacity of people Becker s work on the other hand is concentrated on the generalization of the homo economicus as the basis for explaining all human behaviour He generalizes the maximizing principle to explain all human reality and extends the scope of the application of a so called scientific and technical view of the world In this key volume an important read for those in the fields of economic theory and political economy Javier Aranzadi argues in essence that the tradition of Hayek and Mises encourages a humanistic liberalism whereas the Chicago School proposes only a technical humanism Manual of Discourse Traditions in Romance Esme Winter-Froemel,Álvaro S. Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity

Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity Labor Relations Reference Manual ,1999 Fifty Years of English Studies in Spain (1952-2002) Asociación Española de Estudios Anglo-Americanos.
