Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year The New York Times Index ,2007 Novelists in the New Millennium Vanessa Guignery,2012-11-19 A collection of interviews with leading writers such as Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Kazuo Ishiguro Hanif Kureishi Arundhati Roy and Will Self Through these interviews the book explores and introduces a range of key themes in contemporary literature raising questions about genre history postmodernism celebrity culture and form Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Aysha Iqbal Viswamohan,2013-04-15 Postliberalization Indian Novels in English Politics of Global Reception and Awards is a critical handbook that focuses on trends in contemporary Indian novels and discusses the global reception of these works The volume provides a systematic approach to the study of Indian novelists that have not been with certain exceptions extensively examined The Washington Post Index ,2008 Skateboarding and the City Iain Borden,2019-02-21 Skateboarding is both a sport and a way of life Creative physical graphic urban and controversial it is full of contradictions a billion dollar global industry which still retains its vibrant counter cultural heart Skateboarding and the City presents the only complete history of the sport exploring the story of skate culture from the surf beaches of 60s California to the latest developments in street skating today Written by a life long skater who also happens to be an architectural historian and packed through with full colour images of skaters boards moves graphics and film stills this passionate readable and rigorously researched book explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way Media Review Digest C. Edward Wall,1999 The Believer ,2008 The Publishers Weekly ,2007 Childhood in the Contemporary English Novel Sandra Dinter,2019-10-10 Since the 1980s novels about childhood for adults have been a booming genre within the contemporary British literary market Childhood in the Contemporary English Novel offers the first comprehensive study of this literary trend Assembling analyses of key works by Ian McEwan Doris Lessing P D James Nick Hornby Sarah Moss and Stephen Kelman and situating them in their cultural and political contexts Sandra Dinter uncovers both the reasons for the current popularity of such fiction and the theoretical shift that distinguishes it from earlier literary epochs The book s central argument is that the contemporary English novel draws on the constructivist paradigm shift that revolutionised the academic study of childhood several decades ago Contemporary works of fiction Dinter argues depart from the notion of childhood as a naturally given phase of life and examine the agents interests and conflicts involved in its cultural production Dinter also considers the limits of this new theoretical impetus observing that authors and scholars alike even when they claim to conceive of childhood as a construct do not always give up on the idea of its natural core Accordingly this book reconstructs how the English novel between the 1980s and the 2010s oscillates between an acknowledgment of constructivism and an endorsement of childhood as the last irrevocable quintessence of humanity In doing so it successfully extends the literary and cultural history of childhood to the immediate present
