Gary L. Fogelman,2000 The Medieval Crossbow Stuart Ellis-Gorman,2022-07-20 An in depth illustrated history and technical study of this iconic weapon of the Middle Ages The crossbow is an iconic weapon of the Middle Ages and alongside the longbow one of the most effective ranged weapons of the pre gunpowder era Unfortunately despite its general fame it has been decades since an in depth history of the medieval crossbow has been published which is why Stuart Ellis Gorman s detailed accessible and highly illustrated study is so valuable The Medieval Crossbow approaches the history of the crossbow from two directions The first is a technical study of the design and construction of the medieval crossbow the many different kinds of crossbows used during the Middle Ages and finally a consideration of the relationship between crossbows and art The second half of the book explores the history of the crossbow from its origins in ancient China to its decline in sixteenth century Europe Along the way it explores the challenges in deciphering the crossbow s early medieval history as well as its prominence in warfare and sport shooting in the High and Later Middle Ages This fascinating book brings together the work of a wide range of accomplished crossbow scholars and incorporates the author s own original research to create an account of the medieval crossbow that will appeal to anyone looking to gain an insight into one of the most important weapons of the

when the Romanticists developed the literary theme interest in the subject of our place in nature grown enormously The author s interest was especially piqued one colorful autumn when he picked up an old book at an auction The Witchery of Archery by Maurice Thompson Its subject is the old archery of wood bows and arrows It leads the author to examine the connection between making a wood bow and finding his own place His crafting brought forward an entirely unanticipated flood of psychological material He suffered a fit of discontent He became morose and restless He restudied his Jung He had dreams He underwent a transformation Herein he writes of his change of crafting the wood bow of primitive artistry of kaleidoscoping personae wherein artist and hunter are as in the ancient past indistinguishable He has used the ideas brought forth by bowmaking to approach the idea of hunting but he has arrived at a conclusion different from that held by the dominant sport hunting community One of the earliest and still most prevalent influences in his thinking is Aldo Leopold Leopold s ideas as well as those of Thoreau and Lao Tsu are reformulated in this book to suit archers and hunters It will be of interest to any lover of those thinkers and to hunters archers outdoors oriented people and peripherally to anyone who is interested in personal transformation Wildlife in North Carolina ,1997
