

South Carolina Traffic Collision Report (TR-310)

PAGE 1

[illegible]

The top section of the page will include the date, time and location of the crash. The section underneath will list the names of the drivers or pedestrians involved, as well as contact information and driver's license number. There is also a section for the officer to fill out information about any property damage that occurred.

The bottom of the page has space for the officer to write a narrative and draw a diagram about how the crash happened.
