School Days Lunches Jean Paré, 2005 Where We Ate Gabby Peyton, 2023-06-06 TASTE CANADA AWARDS WINNER One of The Globe and Mail's Best Gift Books of 2023 You've heard and probably asked this question a million times: Where did you go for dinner? A love letter to 150 Canadian restaurants and the stories and people behind them, from pre-Confederation to present day, from Victoria to St. John's, here's where we ate. What is Canadian cuisine? While cookbook authors and historians have spent decades trying to answer this question, Canadian food isn't summed up by one iconic dish but rather a huge range of meals, flavours, and cultural influences. It's about the people who make our food, who cook it, and serve it to us at lunch counters, in ornate dining rooms, and through take-out windows. In her debut book, restaurant critic and journalist Gabby Peyton has penned a celebration of 150 restaurants that have left a mark on the way Canada eats, whether they're serving California rolls, foie gras, poutine, hand-cut beef tartare, or b'n'h'm, and brings us from one decade to the next, showing how our dining trends evolved from beef consommé at Auberge Saint Gabriel in 1754 to nori-covered hot dogs at Japadog. Organized chronologically from pre-Confederation to the present day, you'll find charming, entertaining essays and transportive photos and menus from archival collections that give cultural, economic, and political context. Many restaurants still open for business, so you can plan your visits and bring history alive on the plate. 15 recipes inspired or contributed by some of the featured restaurants for those wishing to truly feel like they're dining in. A joyous representation of the incredible diversity of restaurants, people, and stories that make up our Canadian dining history. Where We Ate is as much of a timeless classic as the restaurants it features. Eating Stories: Food, Family, Folklore & Fabulation Jeffrey Potts, 2023-12-05 Eating Stories Fun Food Family they are a tribute to the flavors, aromas, and memories that enrich our dining tables.
