automotive industry is still one of the world's largest manufacturing sectors but it suffers from being very technology focused as well as being relatively short term focused. There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it. The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic, official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry. An international team of specialist researchers both from academia and business review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world's premier manufacturing sector closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies. In doing so it covers issues related to manufacturing both established practices as well as new developments, issues relating to distribution, marketing and retail vehicle technologies and regulatory trends and crucially labour practices and the people who build cars. In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends as the technological, marketing and labour practice responses to those leading in many cases to the development of new business models.

Key features
 Provides a global overview of the automotive industry covering its current state and considering future challenges
 Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector
 Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context Covers threats to the industry including globalization, economic and environmental sustainability

The Global Automotive Industry is a must have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools, governments and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering.

Wer fertig ist, dem ist nichts recht zu machen, ein Werdender wird immer dankbar sein. Johann Wolfgang von Goethe. Am Anfang der Entwicklung dieses Lehrbuchs stand eine Idee: ein Buch nicht nur für, sondern auch mit den Lernenden, d.h. der im Fokus stehenden Zielgruppe zu verfassen. Ausgehend von einem intensiven Gespräch mit Rolf Günther Hobbeling, Marketingleiter des Gabler Verlages Wiesbaden und vertieft durch gute Gespräche mit der mich betreuenden Lektorin Barbara Roscher, wurde diese Idee innerhalb eines Jahres immer weiter verfeinert und konkretisiert. Deshalb wurden nachdem der Titel Praxisorientiertes Marketing den Fokus dieses Lehrbuchs gesetzt hatte, Studierende an der Fachhochschule für Wirtschaft Berlin zu ihren Erwartungshaltungen bzgl. eines Marketing Lehrbuchs befragt. Denn dieses Werk soll nicht nur die relevante Marketing Substanz transportieren, sondern idealerweise beim Studium auch Spaß bereiten. Sicherlich ein ehrgeiziger Anspruch an ein Lehrbuch. Orientiert an mehr als 300 Fragebögen, die mit wertvollen Anregungen für Konzeption und Ausgestaltung bestückt von den Studenten zurückkamen, wurde das Buch entwickelt. Dies war allerdings nur der erste Teil, die Zielgruppe in den Entscheidungsprozess einzubinden. Zusätzlich wurden alle Teile des Buches von Katharina Burgdorff, Stefanie Jägerling und Steffen Grunwald, Studenten der Fachhochschule für Wirtschaft Berlin, hinsichtlich Verständnis, Motivationskraft und Lesespaß geprüft. Außerdem haben sie intensiv an der Recherche von überzeugenden Praxisbeispielen
