The Church Usher Robert Degraw, 2010-03 In my youth I would watch the ushers at church and thought it would be neat to usher It didn't look hard and I'd get to greet everyone When I got old enough I volunteered and was hooked After I was married and moved to the big city the church I attend was very large and like most churches they needed ushers I was promoted very quickly and the responsibility didn't bother me Then I was drawn to a new daughter church This was a challenge a brand new church I offered what I could When things got settled I was running one of the services When the Head ushers spot came open I didn't think I was ready so I prayed about it A calmness came over me and I knew then it was what God wanted me to do David Foos Head Usher Canyon Hills Community Church Bothell Washington

The Real Peace Process Siobhan Garrigan, 2016-04-01 The Good Friday Agreement resulted in the cessation of paramilitary violence in Northern Ireland However prejudice and animosity between Protestants and Catholics remains The Real Peace Process draws on extensive fieldwork in Protestant and Catholic churches across Ireland to analyse how Christian worship can become caught up in sectarianism The book examines the need for a peace process that changes hearts and minds and not merely civic structures of their inhabitants Aspects of everyday worship ranging from the spatial and symbolic to the verbal musical and interpersonal are explored as the means by which sectarianism can be challenged and transformed

Screening Fears Francesco Casetti,2023-08-15 A historical and theoretical investigation of the unexpected ways screen based media protect and excite viewers fears and anxieties of the world In this brilliant contribution to contemporary media studies acclaimed theorist Francesco Casetti advances a provocative hypothesis instead of being prostheses that expand or extend our perceptions modern screen based media are in fact apparatuses that shelter and protect us from exposure to the world Rather than bringing us closer to external reality dominant forms of visual media function as barriers or enclosures that defend against the apparent threats and dangers that seem increasingly to surround us Working with an original historical overview that begins with the Phantasmagoria of the late eighteenth century then the shared interior spaces of the movie theater in the early to mid twentieth century and finally the solitary digital milieus of the present Casetti traces the outlines of the protective bubbles that disconnect us from our immediate surroundings To be provided with a shield of immunity to the hazards and uncertainties of the world while experiencing them at a safe remove might seem a positive development But he asks what if these media instead of providing invulnerability ensnare individuals in a suffocating enclosure What if in their effort to keep reality under control they exercise a violence equal to that of the dangers they resist In a dialectical exercise and through a vivid range of cultural artifacts Screening Fears traces the emergence of modern protective media and the way they changed our forms of mediation with the world in which we live Information
