SAPANA: History and education in South Asia Imtiaz Alam, 2006 City of Hyderabad Sindh Qammaruddin Bohra, 2000 South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi, Sanjay Chaturvedi, 2021-11-24 Post colonial and post partition South Asia one of the fastest growing and yet one of the least integrated regions of the world is marked by both optimism and pessimism This intriguing dichotomy of strength and weakness security and insecurity hope and fear connections and disconnects underpins South Asia's regionalism conundrum and gives birth to borders and boundaries both material and mental with a complex territoriality The Janus faced nature of South Asian borderlands the inward nationalizing impulses entangled with the outward regional frontier orientations is a stark reminder that history of mobility in this eco geographical region is much older than the history of territoriality and colonial cartography and ethnography This collection of meticulously researched theoretically informed case studies from South Asia provides useful insights into bordering ordering and othering narratives as practices and performances that are intricately entangled with identity politics and security discourses It shows how a sharper focus on subterranean subregionalism s border communities popular geopolitics of enmity and transborder challenges to sustainability could open up spaces for new multiple re imaginings of borders at diverse scales and sights including sub urban neighbourhoods school textbooks cinema and trans border conservation initiatives The chapters in this edited volume have been contributed by both renowned as well as young emerging scholars looking into the borders and boundaries in South Asia Each chapter offers new perspectives and insights into themes like trans Himalayan borderlands India Pakistan physical and mental borders Afghanistan Pakistan border and numerous social boundaries that we see in everyday South Asia The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies

Saha,2004-01-01 Today new and ever more pernicious forms of terrorist violence threaten the world Because these new forms of violence are so often linked to religious radicalism modern terrorism has challenged the secular ethics of contemporary civil society There is a pressing need to understand modern religious movements that have added militancy and belligerence as fundamental elements of religious practice Contributors to this volume painstakingly tackle the question of how to define the contours of current religious fundamentalism as they examine the private and public postures of fundamentalist rhetoric the importance of its regional variants and the damage it can do to regional and national education systems Their analysis tracks trends in religious movements that aspire to radicalize reform and violently topple governments and nations while highlighting the difference between fundamentalist interpretations and other longstanding juridical political and intellectual traditions
