Comprehensive Summary. When they first meet, Tate Collins is uninterested in Miles Archer, a pilot for an airline. She doesn't have time for him because he's haughty and conceited. They reach a compromise because they are unable to resist their attraction to one another. He doesn't want love and she doesn't have time for love, so they are only interested in having sex. If Tate complies with the two instructions Miles has offered her, their setup might be fairly simple. They both understand though that this arrangement might not be as wonderful as they had thought as feelings start to surface. Tate Collins has just moved in with her pilot brother when she receives an unexpected visitor, a drunken man who is passed out next to the door. She makes an attempt to get around him but is unable so she phones her brother Corbin who asks his friend Miles for help. Miles turns out to be the inebriated man she drags him inside and places him on the couch where he begins to cry over Rachel. She isn't a morning person so Tate locks the door in his face as he and Miles Corbin remove all of her possessions from her car. Then Miles and Tate make another introduction. To be continued.
