An Anthology of African Cultural Studies, Volume I Keyan G. Tomaselli, Handel Kashope Wright, 2024-10-04 This volume provides an overview of fundamental or grounding themes in African Cultural Studies including the articulation of African cultural studies the issue of Africa's diaspora's African identity and identifications and media studies in Africa and its relationship with cultural studies The first of two volumes the book predominantly pulls together a rich reservoir of previously published articles from Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies mapping a long history of the field that draws from a diverse range of origins and locations especially from within Africa itself The first section of the book addresses how African cultural studies has been called for and explained both as a comprehensive continental and sometimes national discourse and as being in conversation with established global cultural studies The second section addresses the African diaspora and what might be termed diasporic African cultural studies A third principal theme explored is how African identities and identifications are articulated in African cultural studies On spatiality the volume takes a stance on the exclusive continental versus continuity conception of Africa the African diaspora is treated as contributory and its relationship to the continent as problematic while taking up continental Africa as the principal location of African cultural studies In terms of identity Blackness is taken up as the dominant but importantly not exclusive racial identity and identification of African cultural studies and gender and social class are also addressed in novel ways The book ends with an examination of the complex relationship between media studies and cultural studies This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of African cultural studies media and cultural studies African studies history politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the sub field of African cultural studies Biblical Hermeneutics in Context and the Struggle for Meaning

Aliou Cisse Niang, Andrew M. Mbuvi, Alice Yafeh-Deigh, Tinyiko Maluleke, Kenneth Ngwa, 2024-10-24 The meaningful juxtaposition of academics experts with the day to day lives of nonacademics nonexperts has animated Gerald O West's work from the beginning Seeking to bridge this chasm West's approach of reading the Bible with the ordinary people typically marginalized communities became a core practice not only of his church work but of his scholarship West has been a strong proponent of taking seriously the ordinary reader as a viable and legitimate contributor to our understanding of biblical interpretation Not only does this undo the ivory tower elitism that tends to pervade academic halls of learning but it also reflects a form of scholarly humility that has been a mainstay of West's and should be perpetuated more broadly in biblical scholarship Crisis, Identity and Migration in Post-Colonial Southern Africa

Hangwelani Hope Magidimisha, Nene Ernest Khalema, Lovemore Chipungu, Tamuka C. Chirimambowa, Tinashe Lukas Chimedza, 2017-07-24 This book offers a socio historical analysis of migration and the possibilities of regional integration in Southern Africa It examines both the historical roots of and contemporary challenges regarding the social economic and geo political causes of migration and its consequences i.e xenophobia to illustrate how diaspora migrations have shaped a sense of identity citizenry and belonging in the region By discussing immigration policies and processes and highlighting how the struggle for belonging is mediated by new pressures concerning economic security social inequality and globalist challenges the book develops policy responses to the challenge of social and economic exclusion as well as xenophobic violence in Southern Africa This timely and highly informative book will appeal to all scholars activists and policy makers looking to revisit migration policies and realign them with current globalization and regional integration trends

Higher Education Pathways Ashwin, Paul,Case, Jennifer M.,2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues
