John Crawfurd,1852 A Grammar of the Galla Language Charles Tutschek,1845 Adventures In Organic Sulfur

Chemistry E. Campaigne,1990 The Classification of the Bantu Languages bound with Bantu Word Division

Malcolm Guthrie,2017-09-22 The first volume of this pair The Classification of Bantu Languages originally published in 1948 investigates the questions arising out of the use of the term Bantu It establishes and illustrates the criteria used in identifying languages as members of the Bantu family The technique used in classification is described and its results shown in the form of a series of descriptive classifications of each of the principal areas As well as the map not included in the volume due to modern methods of reproduction but available to view on routledge com there is a complete list of languages classified in their groups The second volume Bantu Word Division published in the same year discusses a question which for many years was the subject of protracted controversy namely the dispute between the conjunctivist and the disjunctivist with regard to word division This pamphlet discusses word division from a different angle and solves the problem in a more conclusive way

A Grammar of the Galla Language Karl Tutschek,Lorenz Tutschek,1845 The Psychology of Radicalization and Terrorism Willem Koomen,Joop Van Der Pligt,2015-11-19 Terrorism and radicalization have a long history but in recent years their prominence has been a particularly conspicuous and influential feature of the global political landscape This important book presents an overview of the processes involved in radicalization and terrorism and introduces a systematic framework which captures the most crucial individual and social factors involved in determining these processes The authors begin by considering the possible role of prejudice economic deprivation and discrimination and the cognitive responses and emotions they can trigger Such responses tend in turn to increase the importance of group membership and promote intergroup differentiation and polarization a process which is often accompanied by more pronounced and more extreme religious and ideological beliefs The book also describes the role of cultural values and social climate in processes of radicalization as well as the role of personality factors and demographics such as age and marital status As for violent terrorist action itself this final most radical stage is elicited by a number of group factors such as groupthink isolation and leadership Certain cognitive mechanisms for example dehumanizing the target and attributing responsibility elsewhere can also provide excuses for violence The book explores why some groups turn to violence and others don t and it addresses processes of disengagement deradicalization programs and other methods used to inhibit the spread of radicalization and terrorism The Psychology of Radicalization and Terrorism takes a unique and systematic approach to a vital topic integrating knowledge from diverse literatures and using social psychology as a basis for comprehending human behaviour It will be essential reading for students and researchers from all disciplines seeking a greater understanding of terrorism and violent political conflict in all
