student Model United Nations experience Coverage of the UN s fifteen year assessment of the Millennium Development Goals and the consequent approval of the Sustainable Development Goals and eResources with supportive materials and documents     Building the E-Service Society Winfried Lamersdorf,Volker Tschammer,Stephane Amarger,2006-05-08 Building the E Service Society is a state of the art book which deals with innovative trends in communication systems information processing and security and trust in electronic commerce electronic business and electronic government It comprises the proceedings of I3E2004 the Fourth International Conference on E Commerce E Business and E Government which was held in August 2004 as a co located conference of the 18th IFIP World Computer Congress in Toulouse France and sponsored by the International Federation for Information Processing IFIP The book contains recent results and developments in the following areas E Government E Government Models and Processes E Governance Service Provisioning E Business Infrastructures and Marketplaces M Commerce Purchase and Payment E Commerce Value Chain Management E Business Architectures and Processes E Business Models     Global Insecurity Mary Kaldor,2000-07-01 The first half of the 1990s was a period of great optimism about humanitarian intervention In the aftermath of the Cold War it was hoped that the international community could begin to act cohesively in defence of fundamental international principles and that a global security policy aimed at the prevention of conflict and upholding human rights could be established The actual experience of this period however has been sobering Agreements engineered from above like the Dayton Agreement or the Oslo Agreement have mixed consequences Efforts at humanitarian relief have often ended up frustrating good intentions and prolonging conflict This book looks at what we learn from such experiences Should we retreat from intervention Is there a global reponsibility for wars and for massive violations of human rights The authors start from a conviction that in a globalized world we do have certain responsibilities and that the point is to look at how we intervene They aim to open up a third approach an alternative to the dominance of realist or neo liberal approaches which would address the reality of contemporary conflict Key themes include the need for a more democratic approach in terms of the accountability and openness of both governments and international institutions the importance of international humanitarian law and the future of formal military forces     The Palgrave Handbook of Small Arms and Conflicts in Africa Usman A. Tar,Charles P. Onwurah,2021-04-05 This handbook provides critical analyses of the theory and practices of small arms proliferation and its impact on conflicts and organized violence in Africa It examines the terrains institutions factors and actors that drive armed conflict and arms proliferation and further explores the nature scope and dynamics of conflicts across the continent as well as the extent to which these conflicts are exacerbated by the proliferation of small arms The volume features rich analyses by contributors who are acquainted with and widely experienced in the formal and informal structures of arms proliferation and control and their repercussions on violence instability and insecurity across Africa The chapters dissect the challenges of small arms and light weapons in Africa with a view to understanding roots causes and drivers and generating a fresh body of analyses that adds value to the existing conversation on conflict management and peacebuilding in Africa With contributions from scholars development practitioners defence and security professionals and civil society activists the handbook seeks to serve as a reference for students researchers and policy makers on small arms proliferation control and regulation defence and security practitioners and those involved in countering violence and managing conflicts in Africa
