THE 100TH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CLIMATE ENGINEERS, held at the Sheraton Hotel, New York City, December 1-4, 1990, was a significant event in the history of the Society. The meeting was attended by over 1000 members and guests from around the world. The program included a variety of sessions, including technical sessions, plenary sessions, and social events. The technical sessions were held in the main ballroom of the hotel, and featured presentations on a wide range of topics related to climate engineering. The plenary sessions were held in the same ballroom, and featured presentations by leading experts in the field. The social events were held in the hotel's restaurants and bars, and provided an opportunity for members and guests to network and socialize. The meeting was a success, and it was a pleasure to host it at the Sheraton Hotel. We look forward to the next annual meeting, which will be held in 1991.
