Ronenbaum, 2016-06-22

Legal education is currently undergoing a paradigm shift Traditional law instruction lecturing and memorizing have become a fading fashion with legal clinics increasingly cropping up These allow law students to practice while studying and to contribute to social justice as part of the educational process Students no longer accept one way interaction from their professors and demand interaction with their peers in various corners of the globe The Middle East is no exception here

Legal clinics can be found in most countries of the region though there is scant literature on legal education in the area particularly with regards to clinical legal education This book fills this gap and offers comparative cases that will benefit legal educators and justice practitioners in the Middle East and beyond The region needs reform in all dimensions including the political economic social religious legal and educational Legal education lies at the heart of securing such long awaited reforms The book examines legal education within selected locations in the region underscoring successful pedagogical models from various parts of the world This peer reviewed book focuses on practical legal education where learning is student centered particularly clinical legal education field work street law pro bono service legal advice simulations placements internships moot courts and mock trials problem based learning case analysis group work role play and brainstorming The book brings together 28 chapters written by leading legal scholars from across the globe all concerned with the advancement of legal education with making it more interactive and contributing to bridging the gap between powerful and powerless communities

Reflections on Postgraduate Supervision and Academic Development in an African Distance Education Environment

Tennyson Mgutshini,Thenjiwe Meyiwa,Amile Mavundla,2024-03-05 Within postgraduate studies student non completion attrition and failure rates range from 29% to 65% These unacceptably high failure rates have been attributed to wide ranging influences Even so there is consensus that postgraduate supervision represents a critical enabling vehicle for student success Reflections on postgraduate supervision and academic development in an African distance education environment offers a collection of scholarly contributions that focus on critical questions related to the practice of postgraduate supervision from the multiple perspectives of higher education institutions postgraduate students and supervisors The inclusion of contributions from educators and learners in one manuscript makes this a unique text one that should be the mainstay of any scholar engaged in postgraduate studies The manuscript aptly makes the case for recognising that postgraduate preparation and supervision are the most critical contributing factors to the success of postgraduate learners and by inference they represent a significant panacea to many of Africa s social and economic skills

Neoliberalism in the Tourism and Hospitality Sector Nadda, Vipin,Bilan, Sahidi,Azam, Muhammad,Mulindwa, Dirisa,2018-10-26 Globalization is increasing interconnectedness and is offering immense opportunities for businesses worldwide Although it has been taking place for hundreds of years it has sped up enormously over the last half century increasing international trade greater dependence on the global economy and freer movement of capital goods and services While globalization can create opportunities for wealth in emerging economies it still cannot completely close the gap between the world s poorest countries and the world s richest Many view globalization as a threat to cultural diversity believing that it can drown out local economies traditions and languages and make travel to certain regions less desirable Neoliberalism in the Tourism and Hospitality Sector provides innovative insights into the adoption of glocalization as a measure to mitigate the threats posed by globalization within the travel and tourism industries It is designed for policymakers researchers government officials and marketers considering glocalization as a means to sustain the relevancy of local business and trade The South China Sea Arbitration Alfredo C. Robles, 2019-01-01 The South China Sea Arbitration which marks the first time that the Philippines and China have been parties to a compulsory dispute settlement procedure is a landmark legal case The Tribunal tackled head on critical issues in the interpretation and application of the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea that other international courts have failed to address particularly the compatibility of historic rights with the Convention the identification of maritime features as permanently submerged or above water at high tide and the distinction between features that are fully entitled to maritime zones and those that are not In addition the Tribunal also had to decide on issues as diverse as near collisions at sea illegal fishing of giant clams and sea turtles and the destruction of fragile coral reefs resulting from island building The Tribunals task was rendered arduous by Chinas refusal to appear before it In these circumstances understanding the Tribunals decisions is a challenging undertaking Chinas public relations campaign targetting the proceedings raised issues that the layperson could readily grasp notably African states support for its non appearance the integrity of the judges and the validity of arbitral awards Understanding the Awards and Debating with China aims to facilitate understanding of the South China Sea Arbitration by presenting detailed summaries of the two Arbitral Awards The author rebuts the questionable claims raised by Chinas public relations campaign and highlights Chinas covert actions during the proceedings
