Re: Case #7492-4859

Dear Ms. Horton,

Carl West and I married in September 2013. Our first child, Lucy West, was born in October 2015, and our second child, Nicole West, was born in March 2018. I am requesting sole legal custody and primary physical custody with alternating weekend visits for Carl. I am also requesting the guideline child support amount, with additional expenses for our children's school tuition. The specific details of my requests are included in the attached proposed parenting plan and parenting time schedule.

In August 2025, after years of strife and irreconcilable differences, Carl and I decided to divorce. He moved out of our house and is currently living in a condo on the other side of town. Lucy and Nicole have been living with me and have, on average, three visits a month with Carl. Since our separation, they have only ever spent two nights at a time with him. Despite this, he is requesting majority custody and does not want to pay the full child support amount. I feel strongly that his custody requests are not in the best interests of our children.
