Dear

I am pleased to confirm that the University of Sheffield has agreed to confer upon you the title of Honorary xxxx with effect from xxx. The title Honorary xxxx is equivalent in standing with xxxxx and meets the eligibility criteria described at: <http://www.shef.ac.uk/hr/services/titles/thessaloniki/xxxxxxxxxx.html>

The terms on which this title is afforded are as follows:

1. You may use the title with effect from the date specified above for the duration of your employment with the City College of Thessaloniki or unless the title is withdrawn by the University or for as long as the University of Sheffield is associated with the City College of Thessaloniki (whichever shall be the shorter period).
2. The use of the title is personal to you and may not be transferred to another person.
3. You shall not by virtue of this agreement or by virtue of your holding an honorary title with the City College of Thessaloniki be an employee of the University of Sheffield.
4. Only the Director of Human Resource Management is entitled to enter into or negotiate contracts with the University of Sheffield or any changes to them. This applies to this agreement.
5. You shall agree with the Terms and Conditions associated with Honorary Titles.

I should be grateful if you would notify me of your acceptance of this honorary title and the associated terms and conditions by returning the duplicate copy of this letter after signing and dating the endorsement.

We are delighted that you have agreed to be associated with the University in this way and I trust that this association proves to be rewarding and mutually beneficial.

Yours sincerely

Ms R A Valerio

Stephen F. Gambescia,Evelyn Gonzalez,2010-02-23 When health and human services organizations new established or mature engage in a strategic planning process invariably the suggestion is made to offer a public speaker bureau to support their mission As a professional in the health and human services field you probably have encountered to some degree the services provided by an organization's speakers bureau You have heard speakers representing organizations or you may have been a staff or volunteer speaker for an organization Public speaker bureaus are ubiquitous Providing a public speaker bureau usually makes sense It provides an easy and relatively inexpensive way to impart useful information to your constituents or the public or serve as a marketing or fundraising tool A public speaker bureau can increase your visibility in the communities that you serve or would like to serve Throughout our score of years of experience in the health and human services fields we were struck by the lack of attention given to most organizations public speaker bureaus Again while most organizations felt the need to have a speakers bureau relatively little attention was given to the management and evaluation of this service In fact few organizations spent quality time determining whether or not a public speaker bureau was indeed needed and if so what should be its strategic purpose in serving the mission of the organization Critical Pedagogy in the Language and Writing Classroom Gloria Park,Sarah Bogdan,Madeleine Rosa,Joseph Navarro,2023-04-25 This volume introduces theory to practice based critical pedagogy grounded in Paulo Freire's scholarship to language and literacy learning settings The chapters present authentic experiences of teacher scholars feature real world examples and activities ready for implementation in the classroom and provide nuanced guidance for future teachers The examples and activities from teacher scholars place critical pedagogy at the heart of classroom contexts and cover key topics including place based pedagogy contemplative pedagogy technology within the classroom and translingual and multimodal paradigms The chapters include further readings and discussion questions that challenge assumptions and promote deeper reflection and can be modified for different teaching contexts This practical volume is essential reading for students and scholars in TESOL and critical pedagogy Continuing Education for the Health Professional Richard Adelson,Fran S. Watkins,Richard M.

Caplan,1985 Crisis and Disaster in Japan and New Zealand Susan Bouterey,Lawrence E. Marceau,2018-08-14 This collection examines a broad spectrum of natural and human made disasters that have occurred in Japan and New Zealand including WWII and the atomic bombing of Japan and two recent major earthquake events the Great East Japan Earthquake and the Christchurch Earthquake which occurred in 2011 Through these studies the book provides important insights into the events themselves and their tragic effects but most significantly a multidisciplinary take on the different cultural responses to disaster changing memories of disasters over time the impacts of disaster on different societies and the challenges post disaster in reviving communities and traditional cultural practices Bringing in humanities and social science perspectives to disaster studies this collection offers a significant contribution to disaster studies
