Role play the scenarios below with partners. Take turns role playing each side. Remember to use body language and acceptable listening and talking skills. Your goal is to resolve the conflict.

- ☐ You were picked to be the captain of your team, now your good friend isn't talking to you because he was hoping to be picked to be the captain.
- ☐ Half of your friends want to play one game and the others want to play another.
- ☐ A friend copied your work and got a better mark than you did.
- ☐ A friend lied to you about what others said about you.
- ☐ You've been blamed for something you did not do.
- ☐ Both of you want the same topic for a project and there's only one topic per student.
- ☐ A friend of yours keeps hiding your belongings and thinks it's funny.
- ☐ Your trust has been betrayed by a friend.
- ☐ Your friend keeps taking your stuff.
- ☐ A friend won't take turns.
- ☐ A friend keeps yelling at you to get his/her way all the time.
- ☐ A classmate took credit for something you did and was praised for it in front of the class.
- ☐ One of your good friends keeps littering despite your efforts to support no littering.
- ☐ Your friend doesn't show respect for your belongings.
- ☐ Your friend lost your favorite hat.
- ☐ A classmate wants you to do something that you are uncomfortable doing.
- ☐ Just as you were to take a seat in the movie theatre, your friend took that same seat.
- ☐ You've been accused of something you didn't do by a friend and now they've told many of your friends.

Scenario Thinking George Cairns, George Wright, 2017-10-13. Develops scenario planning methods in ways that link scenario analysis to improved decision making, engage time poor senior decision makers, attenuate decision makers' tendency to deflect responsibility for bleak negative scenario outcomes and enhance causal analysis within scenario storyline development. What if? Two of the most powerful and frightening words in business. Almost as bad as I didn't see that coming. Some things that transform the marketplace overnight come from nowhere. Some things that create potentially critical under performance are genuinely unforeseeable. Sometimes it is impossible to predict how a change in an organizational strategy will play out. Some things and sometimes but not many and not often. Decision makers in organizations face more and more complex and ambiguous problems that need to be addressed under time pressure and the need for practical decision support has become essential. The range of methods in this book will enable you to be prepared, proactive and resilient no matter what the future brings. Based on up to date academic research and years of application and iteration in the real world, this book, illustrated with examples of the value delivered in Europe, Australia and the Middle East, will transfer practical skills in scenario thinking using step by step instructions. This thoroughly revised and expanded second edition introduces these new approaches in detail with clear guidelines and examples to enable the reader to select and implement the most appropriate scenario method to suit the issue at hand, considering the timeframe for its investigation, the resources available and the outcomes expected.
