Sample Southern Baptist Church Recognition Program:

Hearings United States. Congress. House, 1954 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means, 1954 Strategy Coordinator R. Bruce Carlton, 2011

In 1976 the Southern Baptist Convention adopted its Bold New Thrusts in Foreign Missions with the overarching goal of sharing the gospel with every person in the world by the year 2000. The formation of Cooperative Services International (CSI) in 1985 and the assigning of the first non-residential missionary (NRM) in 1987 demonstrated the Foreign Mission Board's now International Mission Board commitment to take the gospel message to countries that restricted traditional missionary presence and to people groups identified as having little or no access to the gospel. Carlton traces the historical development along with an analysis of the key components of the paradigm and its significant impact on Southern Baptists' missiology. Dr. Carlton has produced an outstanding one-of-a-kind work addressing the influence of the non-residential missionary strategy coordinator's role in Southern Baptist missions. This well-written scholarly text examines the twentieth-century global missiological currents that influenced the leadership of the International Mission Board, resulting in a new paradigm to assist in taking the gospel to the nations. Dr. Carlton writes as both a missiologist and a missionary. This work reveals the keen eye of a scholar but also the heart of a practitioner who desires to see the multiplication of disciples, leaders, and churches across the globe. This text is a must-read for anyone longing to know more about the recent history of the International Mission Board and the theology and missiology behind the SC role and church planting movements. J. D. Payne, National Missionary, North American Mission Board and Assistant Professor of Church Planting and Evangelism, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. I have enjoyed friendship and partnership in the gospel with Bruce Carlton in different capacities. When I served as the Strategy Coordinator for a South Asian city, Bruce was my supervisor. He helped me understand what I was trying to do and how I should be doing it. Since my return to pastoral ministry in America, Bruce has been a missiological dialogue partner. In both capacities, Bruce has been a flame stoker fanning the flames of commitment to make disciples of all nations. I'm glad that Bruce has taken on the task of explaining and evaluating the development of the Nonresidential Missionary (NRM) and Strategy Coordinator (SC) paradigms. He writes from three important perspectives. Bruce writes as an insider. In Cambodia, Bruce was a practitioner of what has developed into the SC approach. His work was at the wellspring of hundreds of reproducing churches. After leaving Cambodia, Bruce taught and mentored many men and women in methodologies for planting reproducing churches. Bruce has lived through the development of these paradigms as an effective practitioner. Bruce writes as an insightful researcher. He asks important questions about the NRM, SC, and Church Planting Movement paradigms and searches for honest answers. Finally, Bruce writes as a respecifier of the relational character of missions. On the front lines of gospel advance, the Spirit mediates the word through people. Grand strategies and paradigms also develop within relational contexts. From these three perspectives, Bruce helps us understand why the paradigms have developed as they have and equips us to ask key questions.

as we look forward E Coye Still III PhD R Bruce Carlton served in Asia from 1986 to 2007 as a church planter Strategy Coordinator and trainer in areas and among peoples with little or no access to the gospel He is the author of Acts 29 Practical Training for Facilitating Church Planting Movements Among the Neglected Harvest Fields a manual for training Strategy Coordinators that has been translated into seventeen different languages Presently Carlton serves as the Associate Professor of Missions at Boyce College a school of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky USA

Hearings United States. Congress Senate,1956 Baptists and Worship R. Scott Connell,2020-11-30 Worship is dialogue It is more than that but it is not less than that The way Baptists have worshiped for three and a half centuries demonstrates this consistently in spite of their penchant for freedom and autonomy No one tells Baptists how to order their worship services They don't have a common liturgy that they must follow and yet their services look remarkably similar This is largely due to two controlling factors in their worship The Bible that they embrace as inspired inerrant authoritative and sufficient and the Christ revealing gospel that is contained within its pages When the word of God is followed closely a shape for worship order begins to emerge It is the same gospel shape that is found throughout the Bible When the word of God is applied to a worship service in which God and his people are engaged in a worship conversation a consistent contour of gospel elements and content begins to emerge that reveals the glory of the Christ we gather to worship He is so glorious that when we behold him we are transformed into the same image from one degree to another This is the power of corporate worship 2 Cor 3 Hearings United States. segregationist officials politicians and institutions Like other Southeastern Native groups living under Jim Crow regimes tidewater Native groups and individuals fortified their communities by founding tribal organizations churches and schools they displayed their Indianness in public performances and they enlisted whites including well known ethnographers to help them argue for their Native distinctness Describing an arduous campaign marked by ingenuity conviction and perseverance Laura J Feller shows how these tidewater Native people drew on their shared histories as descendants of Powhatan peoples and how they strengthened their bonds through living and marrying within clusters of Native Virginians both on and off reservation lands She also finds that by at times excluding African Americans from Indian organizations and Native families Virginian Indians themselves reinforced racial segregation while they built their own communities Even as it paved the way to tribal recognition in Virginia the tidewater Natives sustained efforts chronicled in this book demonstrate the fluidity instability and persistent destructive power of the construction of race in America Congressional Record United States.
