High School Expository Essay: The Importance of Environmental Conservation

Introduction

- Hook: Picture a world where forests are lush, oceans are clean, and wildlife thrives. Now imagine the opposite – a world suffocated by pollution and devoid of natural beauty.
- Background Information: Environmental conservation has become a crucial topic in today's world, as human activities continue to impact the Earth's natural ecosystems.
- Thesis Statement: This essay explores the importance of environmental conservation, its benefits, the current challenges, and ways individuals can contribute to this global effort.

Body Paragraph 1: Benefits of Environmental Conservation

- Topic Sentence: Environmental conservation offers numerous benefits, crucial for the health of our planet and its inhabitants.
- Supporting Detail 1: Preserving natural habitats ensures biodiversity, maintaining the balance of ecosystems.
- Supporting Detail 2: Conservation efforts help combat climate change by preserving carbon sinks like forests and oceans.
- Concluding Sentence: Thus, conservation is vital for sustaining the planet's health and diversity.

Body Paragraph 2: Current Challenges in Conservation

- Topic Sentence: Despite its importance, environmental conservation faces several significant challenges.
- Supporting Detail 1: Pollution, deforestation, and climate change are continuously degrading the environment.
- Supporting Detail 2: Lack of awareness and political will often hinder effective conservation measures.
- Concluding Sentence: Addressing these challenges is imperative to ensure the effectiveness of conservation efforts.

Body Paragraph 3: Individual Contributions to Conservation

- Topic Sentence: Individual actions play a crucial role in supporting environmental conservation.

How to Write an Essay W. Webb,2013-10-21 An excerpt from the beginning of the first chapter 1 Introduction Literary composition is the art of expressing thought or feeling effectively by words The thinking must be done first ideas and opinions must be formed before the attempt is made to put them into words the writer should know beforehand exactly what he means Hence interest and experience in a subject are essential to him What he wants as Professor Raleigh remarks is not an abundance of facts so much as the connexions between the facts It is the connexion of things with each other the ability to go from point to point which marks literature Thus the art of composition is governed by certain principles and methods which the young writer must learn and carry into practice in order to write well The aim of the following pages is to explain the most important of these principles with special reference to the writing of Essays 2 Classification of Essays Essays may be divided into four classes I Narrative Essays or Essays that consist of the narration of some event Such events may be historical or legendary occurrences or they may be stories true or imaginary or they may be biographical sketches of some well known person II Descriptive Essays or Essays that consist of the description of some place or thing These may be animals plants fruits or minerals towns ports ships and buildings of all kinds as towers temples museums bridges countries islands mountains seas rivers canals aspects of nature or lastly manufactured articles III Reflective Essays or Essays that consist of reflection upon some topic which is generally of an abstract nature These topics may be habits qualities feelings and capacities or they may be subjects of a social and political character IV Expository Essays or Essays that consist of the exposition or explanation of subjects These may be comprised under the head of first institutions industries occupations and phrase of life secondly scientific topics and thirdly literary topics

Expository Writing Maurice Garland

Fulton, 2017-03-18 Excerpt from Expository Writing Materials for a College Course in Exposition by Analysis and Imitation Compiled and Edited With Questions and Exercises A writer who has cultivated the habit of seeking clearness of thought will not be content with hasty or ill considered work Neither will he find himself willing to attempt subjects that are beyond his abilities but will keep the selection of subjects within the sphere of his actual experience and definite knowledge There is no excuse for a writer's not having the habit of seeking clearness of knowledge for it is obtainable as Huxley says by any one who possesses a tolerably clear head and a decent conscience and who is willing to give himself the necessary trouble About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

OUTLINES AND SUMMARIES NORMAN. FOERSTER, 2018 Writing the Expository Essay Jane M. Kahan, Marie K. Stone, 1977-12-01 Outlines and Summaries Norman Foerster, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from Outlines and Summaries A Handbook for the Analysis of Expository Essays This little treatise is the result of an endeavor to find a fairly rigid formal method of outlining that could actually be taught Virtually everything that has been written on outlining refrains

from venturing beyond miscellaneous mechanical directions apparently on the assumption that the fundamental processes involved are of an intuitive nature and cannot be taught To a mature mind they are more or less intuitive and it is desirable that they should be so But they need not be intuitive it is possible to create a method that presents definite directions at every stage of the process a method which is easy to teach and easy to learn and a mastery of which is of great value The author believes that in this text book he has explained such a method It has been used profitably at all events by the freshman class in the University of Wisconsin It is expected that the book will be used in connection with Essays for College Men Holt or any other collection of orderly expository writing It is not expected that it will be used in connection with rambling expository essays or the personal essays of Lamb and Stevenson About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
