

Dear _____,

RE: Formal demand for unpaid rent

I am writing to notify you that according to my records and as per the terms of your tenancy agreement your rent is now overdue.

Total Outstanding Rent: £_____. This was due to be paid on _____.

I kindly request that the outstanding balance be paid immediately and that all future rental payments be made in full on the due date as per terms of your tenancy agreement.

If you would like to discuss this matter, please contact me urgently.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

If payment of the outstanding rent(s) has been made before receipt of this letter,

Chiappetta Jr., 2012-11 The corrections employee who inspired me to design this book knew what most of you reading this already know that the only hope that more than 90 percent of incarcerated inmates nationwide have for not returning to prison is steady employment There are numerous books on this subject already and most of them say the same things It is also fair to say that most are accurate This course doesn't try to reinvent the wheel so to speak but instead gives a step by step guide for preparing and facilitating a prerelease employability class in a corrections environment Prison inmates are for the most part challenged with a wide variety of social dysfunctions Educational backgrounds vary as well It is critical to make the prerelease employability class both user friendly and student specific for the challenges presented by the prison itself Ultimately it is up to an individual whether or not he or she chooses to succeed or improve the quality of their life The key is to make this goal in life attainable and realistic to the students thus encouraging them to make that choice Remember that even the best plans in the world are nothing without good people to carry them out If you re planning to teach or assist in a corrections prerelease employability course you must understand and believe in its benefits Not only believe but also participate by sharing your own personal experiences and opinions to the extent that policy allows Only by interacting with the class on a more personal level will you get the respect and trust of your students By operating in this capacity you become as important an asset to the course as the written material itself The results of your efforts will be reflected in the future success stories from your students Environmental Administrative Decisions: Environmental Appeals Board, May 2001 to December 2002 United States. Making Fathers Pay David L. Chambers,1979-09 A couple with children divorce A court orders the father to pay child support but the father fails to pay This pattern repeats itself thousands of times every year in nearly every American state Making Fathers Pay is David L Chambers s study of the child support collection process in Michigan the state most successful in inducing fathers to pay He begins by reporting the perilous financial problems of divorced mothers with children problems faced even by mothers who work full time and receive child support The study then examines the characteristics of fathers who do and do not pay support and the characteristics of collections systems that work Chambers s findings are based largely on records of fathers support payments in twenty eight Michigan counties some of which jail hundreds of men for nonpayment every year Chambers finds that in places well organized to collect support jailing nonpayers seems to produce higher payments from men jailed and from men not jailed but only at a high social cost He also raises grave doubts about the fairness of the judicial process that leads to jail While Chambers s total sample includes 12 000 men he interweaves through his text moving interviews with members of one family caught in the painful predicaments that men women and children face upon separation To increase support for children at lower social costs Chambers advocates a national system of compulsory deductions from the wages of non custodial parents who earn more than enough for their own subsistence FCC Record United States.
