The Politics of Heritage Jo Littler,Roshi Naidoo,2004-12-17 This collection explores how the heritage industry and cultural policy have responded to questions of nation and national identity Homeless Advocacy and the Rhetorical Construction of the Civic Home Melanie Loehwing,2018-10-30 Homeless assistance has frequently adhered to the three hots and a cot model which prioritizes immediate material needs but may fail to address the political and social exclusion of people experiencing homelessness In this study Loehwing reconsiders typical characterizations of homelessness citizenship and democratic community through unconventional approaches to homeless advocacy and assistance While conventional homeless advocacy rhetoric establishes the urgency of homeless suffering it also implicitly invites housed publics to understand homelessness as a state of abnormality that destines the individuals suffering it to life outside the civic body In contrast Loehwing focuses on atypical models of homeless advocacy the meal sharing initiatives of Food Not Bombs the international competition of the Homeless World Cup and the annual Homeless Persons Memorial Day campaign She argues that these modes of unconventional homeless advocacy provide rhetorical exemplars of a type of inclusive and empowering civic discourse that is missing from conventional homeless advocacy and may be indispensable for overcoming homeless marginalization and exclusion in contemporary democratic culture Loehwing s interrogation of homeless advocacy rhetorics demonstrates how discursive practices shape democratic culture and how they may provide a potential civic remedy to the harms of disenfranchisement discrimination and displacement This book will be welcomed by scholars whose work focuses on the intersections of democratic theory and rhetorical and civic studies as well as by homelessness advocacy groups

Memory and Forgetting in the Post-Holocaust Era Alejandro Baer,Natan Sznaider,2016-11-25 To forget after Auschwitz is considered barbaric Baer and Sznaider question this assumption not only in regard to the Holocaust but to other political crimes as well The duties of memory surrounding the Holocaust have spread around the globe and interacted with other narratives of victimization that demand equal treatment Are there crimes that must be forgotten and others that should be remembered In this book the authors examine the effects of a globalized Holocaust culture on the ways in which individuals and groups understand the moral and political significance of their respective histories of extreme political violence Do such transnational memories facilitate or hamper the task of coming to terms with and overcoming divisive pasts Taking Argentina Spain and a number of sites in post communist Europe as test cases this book illustrates the transformation from a nationally oriented ethics to a trans national one The authors look at media scholarly discourse NGOs dealing with human rights and memory museums and memorial sites and examine how a new generation of memory activists revisits the past to construct a new future Baer and Sznajder follow these attempts to manoeuvre between the duties of remembrance and the benefits of forgetting This the authors argue is the ethics of Never Again Navigating Glioblastoma Sally Connolly,2020-07-10 A stale marriage A deadly diagnosis For Sally Connolly three years of struggle followed her husband Peter s surgery for terminal brain cancer at age 61 Choosing treatment options that interfered least with his career Peter focused his limited energy on work with little left for his family further straining the marriage during his remaining days Connolly s clear eyed and affecting memoir recounts their wrangling over gender roles money management domestic decisions and lifestyle changes Through their traumatic journey they find humor and comfort in unexpected places Flathead National Forest (N.F.), Sheppard Creek Post-fire Project ,2008 Theoretical and Practical Approaches to Innovation in Higher Education Makewa, Lazarus Ndiku,2019-12-27 Education badly needs effective innovations that can help produce high quality learning outcomes across the system The primary focus of educational innovations should be on teaching and learning theory and practice as well as on the learner parent community society and culture Technology applications need a solid theoretical foundation based on purposeful systemic research and a sound pedagogy Theoretical and Practical Approaches to Innovation in Higher Education is an essential scholarly publication that outlines the classification of innovations discusses the hurdles to innovation and offers ways to increase the scale and rate of innovation based transformations in the education system The publication argues that raising the quality and scale of innovations in education will positively affect education itself and benefit society Highlighting topics such as academic integrity e learning and learner engagement this book is vital for higher education professionals academicians educators librarians course designers researchers and students InCider ,1989-07 Designing Websites For Every Audience Ilise Benun,2003 An excellent resource for all emerging and established Web designers this book provides detailed analysis about what works and what doesn t when it comes to usability More than 20 examples of well known Web sites are profiled to illustrate good and bad design and functionality outlining clear guidelines for meeting the end user s needs PC Mag ,1987-09-15 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology Commerce Business Daily ,1998-03 The Californians ,1985 Breast Cancer J.
